If you feel certain that your ancestors came from Edgar County IL you should write the Edgar County Genealogy Library, 414 N. Main, Paris IL 61944 or call (217) 463-5305. They are open Wednesday to Friday from 9 A.M. to 4 P.M.

Checking our sources I discovered that Thomas and Sarah B. Brooks are listed on p. 139 of the Edgar County IL 1850 census. This indicates he was born in Fayette County PA in 1803. Uniontown is the county seat. Sarah was born in "Frederic" County Virginia. However, by 1827 they were in Edgar County as daughter Caroline E. was born there. You might want to write the Uniontown Public Library, 24 Jefferson St., Uniontown PA 15401-3699 and inquire if a Robert Brooks and family were living in Fayette County in the 1810 Pennsylvania census. If so, what about the 1820 and 1830 censuses? One thing is certain: Robert was not born in Edgar County IL in 1773 as it was remote Indian territory before 1818 when Illinois became a state.

Pg. 788 of History of Edgar County Illinois published in 1879 indicates Thomas Brooks was a taxpayer in Shiloh Township P.O. Hume. Because Hume is in Young America Township I would assume that Thomas' farm was in the northern part of Shiloh Township.

Edythe Stephens' cemetery records of Shiloh and Young America Townships indicate one Brooks family but they are later generation. The 1987 Index to Edgar County Estates and Wills (1823-1963) indicates that Book I, pgs 180 or 188(?) and p. 521 refer to the estate of John Brooks. (There aren't any listings for Robert or Thos. Brooks.) However, you probably ought to write to their Genealogical Society and/or the Courthouses, Clerk's Office, Paris IL 61944.

Perhaps you already know where Thomas and Sarah Brooks are buried. If this is true you should mention that in future letters in order to assist researchers that are helping you. The Edgar Cemetery records that we have are from 1858-1872 and you stated that Thomas Brooks died August 28, 1881. You should try to obtain his obituary as it might have biographical information. You may already have a copy of his death certificate.

To Whom It May Concern,

I am looking for information on my ancestors. They lived in Edgar Co. Illinois. I am not sure where to write for information on Edgar Co. so please check your files for information on them and if there is none, would you kindly tell me who to write to?

The family I am researching is the Robert Brooks family. Robert Brooks was born Jan, 8, 1773 PROBABLY in Edgar, Co. He died July 12, 1844. His wife was Mary Little, born Jan. 13, 1776, died Oct. 2, 1857. They were married July 18, 1799. I only know of one son, Thomas Martin Brooks, Born Dec. 27, 1803 in Edgar Co. He maried Sarah Brown Chenowith, born Dec. 7, 1807. Thomas Martin Brooks died Aug. 28, 1881.

I am looking for:

1. Role in county history
2. more information on parents, grandparents
3. original country or origin
4. any wills

NEWBERRY LIBRARY INDEX

Contributed by Ted. O. BROOKE, 79 Wagonwheel Court, N.E., Marietta, GA 30067.

THE GENEALOGICAL INDEX OF THE NEWBERRY LIBRARY, CHICAGO, by G. H. Hall & Co., Boston, Mass., 1960.

In March, 1896, the catalogue department of the Newberry Library began work upon the preparation of a genealogical index that should contain in time all the surnames, principally in the United States, that had appeared in historical and genealogical periodicals, compilations, and books in the library's collections. These entries ranged from a mere mention of a name in a list of representatives "or some other honorable connection", to a family history of several hundred pages. This ambitious undertaking was continued for twenty years, sometimes through the use of special cataloguers. In 1896 the Librarian reported 300,000 entries; in 1899 half a million; in 1910, 629,000; and in 1915, 693,431.

Such a dimution in the rate of increase foreshadowed the end. Costs were mounting. During the first World War continuance proved impossible, and in 1918 a card catalogue much more econimically replaced the laborious searching and copying of all the names in a work of reference.

Fifty years ago the Librarian boasted that no other library in the world had so complete a genealogical tool. The monument remains invaluable for genealogical research, and visitors from everywhere in the United States have made use of it.

The Newberry Library is a reference library only with no service in the assembling and copying of material to which the index refers.

Naturally, some of this source material will not be found in other libraries since this is an analytic index of surnames in variant spellings to be found in books in the collections of the Newberry Library. These references are of enormous value as clue-finders, but it should be noted that the reference "Brooks Family" does not mean necessarily that a concise record of some Brooks family may be found; rather, it may provide but a name in a tax list, the name of a committeeman, an early settler, or record of marriage, will, or probate. The reference will, never-the less, serve to place a surname in a specific area for organized research. On the other hand, the reference may open several generations of a family long in research.

The index is for such personal use as may be made of its references in local libraries, or in a visit to the Newberry Library.

The format of the following is alphabetical by surname - BROOK, BROOKE, BROOKS - and then alphabetically by state.

LETTER FROM THE EDITOR

Dear Subscribers:

We now see our second effort at publication of The Brooks Family Query Exchange in print. I would like to thank all of you for your support. We have received many nice comments about our first issue.

Membership continues to grow weekly, sometimes daily. At this time our Brooks family members number 142. We will continue to recruit new members and advertise so we may become known to as many Brook, Brooks, Brooke, and Brookes researchers as possible. If you have not already done so, please send me as many names and addresses as you have of Brooks researchers.

I would like to remind you that it is not too late to purchase one or two gift subscriptions for your favorite genealogical society, public library, state historical society or library. Gift subscriptions are $4.00 each and should be mailed directly to me. In this issue, we have published a list of those who have purchased gift subscriptions and to whom they were presented.

As Jeffrey mentioned in the first issue, we would like to publish a special in our November issue on the earliest proven Brooks ancestor each member has. Please send me a family group sheet, not a pedigree chart. I hope that no one feels he is entering into competition, but sharing information that may help another researcher. If you do not have a family group sheet, send me a self-addressed, stamped envelope and I will mail one to you.

We need all sorts of Brooks records for future publications. One of our members is concerned with locating books and periodicals which can be consulted for dates and names which would confirm information. She is researching the Deerfield and Shiloh, New Jersey area. Can anyone help? If so, please send me any information.

For those of you who are having trouble locating a town on present day maps you may write to: Donald J. Orth, Executive Secretary, Domestic Geographic Names, United States Board on Geographic Names, 523 National Center, Reston, VA 22092. I was unable to locate the town of Poplin, New Hampshire where some of my ancestors lived during the 1700s. I wrote to Mr. Orth and received seven pages of xeroxed material, at no charge, on this town and I learned it was located in Rockingham County. The name had been changed to Fremont in 1854.

I would like each member who has not already done so to send me their pedigree charts and family group sheets concerning Brooks ancestors. This is a separate project from the above mentioned "earliest proven ancestor." I will index this material and notify those researching the same ancestor.

Don't forget to send material for future publications, esally. Gift subscriptions are $4 annually. Queries are published free to members. Please send all inqueries to the Managing Editor.

Statement of Purpose: To assist researchers of the Brooks family and preserve as a historical record Brooks information that is likely to be lost or available to a limited few.

The publishers do not in any way guarantee the accuracy of any information appearing in this magazine.

YOUR OWN PROUD FAMILY NAME GUARD IT WISELY

You got it from your father
It was all he had to give.
So its yours to use and cherish,
For as long as you may live.
If you lose the watch he gave you,
It can always be replaced,
But a black mark on your name son,
Can never be erased.
It was clean the day you took it,
And a worthy name to bear.
When he got it from his father,
There was no dishonor there.
So make sure you guard it wisely,
After all is said and done.
You'll be glad the name is spotless,
When you give it to your son.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Mrs. Neely Brooks, Box, 66, Tahoka, TX 79373 writes, "Enjoyed the first issue and I wish you the best for all future issues. The first one was great."

Janie Vickery, 1219 Division, Sulphur, OK 73086 writes, "I am enjoying my copy of the Query Exchnage which arrived today."

Carson and Georgene Gallagher, 7408 Davis Street, Morton Grove, IL writes, "We are truly thrilled with your letter and society. It is absolutely wonderful. Please put us on your membership and mailing list. You have undertaken something quite worthwhile and "consuming". My first book, A Genealogy of the 1837 Leininger Family, (my father) will be published this month, so I know the commitment, financial problems, frustrations and wonderful rewards in seeing something like this 'take off'. We are grateful."

Wahner Brooks, 2855 South Madison, Yuma, AZ 85364, "I found your first issue of the Exchange very interesting and promising. However, I have a question that I suspect you may find rather naive. Perhaps, though, others would be interested in the answer, too. I noticed a total lack of source citations in the queries. Are these being edited out to save space, assuming individual correspondence will correct this lack? It would certainly reduce input effort if this is the case."

(From The Editor) The queries are not being edited. We do however, use general query abbreviations. Readers?

Evelynne Alvis, 1210 Shopping, Weatherford, OK 73096 writes, "Volume I, Issue 1 of The Brooks Family Query Exchange came today. It is certainly well done and I feel sure will be a valuable tool to those of us with Brooks loose ends."

Mr. Marion B. Brunson, Route 3, Box 14-M, Elba, AL 36323 writes, "I need some early Brooks genealogy and hope I can obtain it through your Exchange and also will be able to share some data which I have."

Anne Hinton, 603 Rockford Ave., Apt. 3, Dayton, OH 45405 writes, "Please warn your seekers when they ask the Archives for a veterans record to tell them you want BOTH HIS SELECTED AND NON-SELECTED records. After I learned this I proved a line.

Pat Ham, 623 Water Street, Paoli, IN 47454, "I really appreciate your efforts on behalf of all Brooks relatives. I am eager to get the November issue with family group sheets. Thanks again for your help."

W. Leigh Brookes, P.O. Box 403, Sweetwater, TX 79556 writes, "I very much enjoyed the first edition of your publication and plan to continue my subscription as long as you continue it. Your time and trouble is very much appreciated and we all hope you realize that."

Mrs. Patrick A. Yates, P.O. Box 2047, Ridgecrest, CA 93555 writes, "Thank you for answering my inquiry so promptly, and for answering all my questions. I am delighted to finally find a publication relating to Brooks! I have been working on my husband's Brooks family for years and although I have made considerable progress, I thought I was probably the only one in the world interested in this family."

Clifton Rowland Brooks, 1301 El Finito Way, Santa Ana, CA 92705, "I received the first issue of the Exchange and Adgie and I are quite pleased."

BOOK ANNOUNCEMENT

Mr. and Mrs. Lee M. Corless, 610 Roslyn Road, Grosse Point, MI 48236 have asked us to announce their publication, Descendants of Jesse and Polly (Chase) Corless and David and Ann (Clark) Brooks, with the closely related families of Bailey, Charlton, Chase, Dexter, Harris, Hildreth, Luethe, Newell, Shain, Welch, Whaley, and Woolley.

The book has 460 pages, is hardbound, and the index contains over 7500 names. It is divided into three parts - Corless, Brooks, and Related Families, with a chapter being devoted to each of the related families. Six of these families were related to the Corless lines, and six to the Brooks lines by two or more marriages.

They have included available data on the children of the females, and a limited amount for the grandchildren, which they have found contrary to most family histories.

The price is $13.50, plus the shipping charges. The cost may be paid in installments, if desired, but it will be your responsibility to complete payments before shipment is made.

Mr. and Mrs. Corless ask that you please remember that in a few short years, children and grandchildren will be grown up, and in many cases, scattered about the country, and perhaps the world. When a complete printing has been sold out, there will be no more copies.

They say the book is much more comprehensive than anticipated, and that fact plus illness and other problems, delayed completion far beyond their earlier thinking. They trust you will find the work to be informative and interesting.

FAMILY HISTORY STILL AVAILABLE

Mr. John M. Jones, 2011 Ferry Avenue, T-9, Camden, NJ 08104 has advised us that he has a few remaining copies of his 1977 book, History and Genealogy of the Jones and Brooks Families of Escambia County, Alabama, which he would be glad to give away free to libraries or to members as long as they last. We would like to thank Mr. Jones for contributing a copy to our Brooks Family Society Library.

HISTORY OF MILES BROOKS

Mrs. William P. Hensel, Stanford, IL 61701 advised that she compiled a history on Miles Brooks, a brother to George Brooks. She had 150 copies (105 pages) of this Genealogy printed and has sold practically all of them. She has a few left, but due to the increase in cost of printing and binding her actual cost is $38.50 each.

REPRINT AVAILABLE

Janie Vickery, 1219 Division, Sulphur, OK 73086 writes that the book, Brooks and Kindred Families by Ida Brooks Kellam, 1950, has been reprinted and is available from Ray and Virginia Johnson, 143 Jennifer Lane, Lilburn, GA 30247 for $13.00.

If you know of a recent publication, or reprint, of a Brooks family history, please write us advising the name and address where it can be ordered, and include the price if that information is available to you.

Many genealogists do some researching on their summer vacations. Did you? If so, write and share your experiences while searching for your Brooks kin. Did you attend a family reunion this summer? Tell us about it.

Jonathan BROOKS continued to serve in Captain Houdin's company and regiment until Apr 1782 when he was transferred to the first company commanded by Capt. MILLS of the first Massachusetts regt. He continued to serve until Aug when being sick he was sent to the hospital in Philadelphia. His regiment and company were in Philadelphia because of mutiny in the Pennsylvania corps. He remained in the hospital sick until Oct of 1782 when he rejoined his regiment and returned with them to West Point. He was discharged in Nov of 1782 on account of ill health, and his discharge was signed by General McDOUGAL. He applied for his pension in 1818.

Jonathan settled a military tract in Fabius, Onadaga Co., New York. In 1820 he was remarried to widow Mrs. Mary Anne Pope who had a daughter Mariette Pope, age 2. Jonathan's children and approximate birth dates are:

I think Jonathan died in 1836 but the writing on his pension papers from National Archives was almost illegible (even with a magnifying glass).

The following article was written and contributed by John BROOKS THRELFALL, 5518 Barton Road, Madison, WI 53711. This article previously appeared in THE AMERICAN GENEALOGIST.

THOMAS BROOKS OF WATERTOWN AND CONCORD

Thomas BROOKS and his wife first appear on record in New England at Watertown, Mass., in July 1636 when he received a grant of land. The next February he received a four-acre lot, one acre per person being the allotment. However, he must have had three children with him then, a discrepancy not explained. He soon moved to Concord where he was appointed constable in 1638, and appraiser of livestock in 1640. He was representative to the General Court from Concord in 1642-4 and for four years after 1650. In 1640 he was appointed to prevent drunkenness among the Indians. In 1657 he purchased for £5 from the Commissioners of the General Court the right of carrying on the fur trade in Concord. In 1660 he and his son-in-law, Timothy Wheeler, jointly bought of Edward Collins for £404, 400 acres in Medford, a house and some artifacts. One third of it was for Wheeler (Middlesex Deeds 2:118). Grace Brooks, his wife, died 12 May 1664 and the next October he sold his house and lot in Concord to John Wheeler (ibid.3:169) and presumably went to live with one of his children, for he died in Concord 21 May 1667, intestate. His three sons and son-in-law presented an inventory of his estate for probate on 16 June 1667 and the next day signed an agreement for the division of his estate. Son Joshua was to have a double portion, the usual custom for the eldest son. This document certainly establishes the living heirs and eliminates the several other Brooks persons who have sometimes been suggested as children. See Bond's GENEALOGIES AND HISTORY OF WATERTOWN for the full text of the agreement.

Neither the date of his arrival in New England nor the place of his departure is known. He could hardly have been the Thomas Brooks who embarked in May 1635, then aged 20, in company with the Rev. Peter Bulkley, if his second son Caleb was born about 1632, unless the age is incorrect.

Children:

i. Mary, probably eldest child; m. Capt. Timothy Wheeler (3rd wife) after 1643; 2 daughters. She d. 4 Oct. 1693, testate.
1 ii. Joshua, b. probably about 1630 in England.
2 iii. Caleb, b. about 1632, probably in England.
3 iv. Gershom

(Note: Hannah Brooks who m., as 2nd wife, Thomas Fox, at Concord, 13 Dec. 1647, has been suggested as another daughter. Thomas Fox d. 12 April 1658 and in his will mentions his uncle Thomas Brooks. While the term uncle was often used loosely then and might conceivably have been used to mean father-in-law, she or her children would surely have been among the heirs of Thomas Brooks if she had been a daughter. Her date of death is unknown. More likely she was a niece of Thomas Brooks and Thomas Fox was a nephew by marriage only. She was probably a daughter of Henry Brooks who first settled at Concord, then moved on to Woburn. ~~Thus, most likely, Thomas and Henry Brooks were brothers and it may have been~~ Henry who influenced Thomas to move from Watertown to Concord.)

1. Joshua^2 BROOKS (Thomas^1) was born about 1630. On 17 Oct. 1653 he married at Watertown, Hannah Mason, born there 23 Sept. 1636, daughter of Capt. Hugh and Hester (Wells) Mason. It is supposed that he learned his trade of tanner from Captain Mason, and, soon after, married his daughter who was just seventeen. He settled in that part of Concord which became Lincoln and, it is supposed, sold his share of his paternal estate in Medford to his brother Caleb who settled there. Deeds, however, do not show it. He was a captain in the militia and a deacon in the church. On 11 Nov. 1695, with consent of his wife, he sold his Concord lands by four deeds to his sons Noah, Daniel, Joseph and Job. Each deed described several parcels, all of which were in the same area and were bounded by lands of these four brothers. He and Hannah both signed by mark. Noah paid £59, Daniel £59, Joseph £50, and Job £35. By a deed of 24 Aug. 1697, Noah Brooks, Daniel Brooks Sen., Joseph Brooks Sen., Benjamin Pierce of Watertown, Benjamin Whittmore and

Judah Potter of Concord, sold to Hugh Brooks, all right in the estate "our brother Job Brooks had of our father Joshua Brooks, deceased." Thus, all the children were named except Elizabeth who was then living in South Carolina. Therefore, Joshua died sometime in 1696 or 1697. Hannah's death is unrecorded (ibid. 10:438, 494, 533; 12:71; 14:353).

He married Dorothy Potter, died 15 March 1752 in her 90th year, daughter of Luke and Dorothy (Edmunds) Potter. The marriage is proved by the will of Luke Potter in which he bequeathed to his daughter Dorothy Brooks. It should also be noted that Noah's sister Grace married Judah Potter, brother of Dorothy. In 1684 Noah Brooks was a witness to an Indian deed. He was selectman in 1702, 1704 and 1709. They lived in Concord until 3 July 1735 when Lincoln was set off from Concord and incorporated, and his farm was thus included in the new town. He, his brothers and sister Esther, all opposed this change and signed a petition against it but to no avail (Register 12:20). Their grave stones are still extant in the old Hill cemetery though all that is left of his is the bottom part with his age.

8. Joseph^{3} BROOKS (Gershom^{2}, Thomas^{1}) was born about July, August, or early September, 1682. This we learn from his guardianship papers among which is a bond:

> Know all men by these presents that we Joseph Brooks Senr of Concord, Edward Bridge of Roxbury in ye county of Essex, and Daniel Brooks junr in said Concord in ye county of Midex . . . stand firmly bound and obliged unto James Russell Esq. Judge of Probate for ye county ... dated the 30th day of June Anno Dom 1701 in ye 13th year of his Majesties Reign. The condition of this psent obligation is such that if ye above bounden Joseph Brooks Senr of Concord ... guardian to his cousin Joseph Brooks son of Gershom Brooks late of sd Concord yeoman deces., a minor of eighteen years of age ... (Edward Bridge was a brother-in-law and Daniel Brooks was older brother of young Joseph Brooks.)

Being 18 at this time means he was born between 1 July 1682 and 29 June 1683. He died 17 Sept. 1759 in his 78th year per grave stone in Lincoln. Accordingly, he was born between 18 Sept. 1681 and 16 Sept. 1682. Thus he must have been born in July, August or the first half of September 1682 (Middlesex Probate 2829).

When of Weston, he married 29 July 1725, Jane Jennison of Sudbury, widow of Peter Jennison who died 17 Jan. 1723. Jane had seven children by her first marriage, and she died 16 Nov. 1753 in her 70th year, so was born about 1684. In his will of 19 March 1757, he bequeathed to his "sons-in-law" Peter Jeneson, Israel Jeneson, Robert Jeneson and Samuel Jeneson, to his "daughters-in-law" Sarah Severen, Jane How, and his three "grandchildren" born of his "daughter-in-law" Eunice Richardson deceased. These were his step-children. He also bequeathed to his kinsmen David, Timothy, Daniel, and Josiah Brooks and Anna Hoar, who were the five children of his brother Daniel. Then he bequeathed to the two children of his kinsman Eben Miriam, deceased. This Ebenezer Merriam was apparently his nephew by his sister Elizabeth (Brooks) Merriam (Middlesex Probate 2858).

Child:

Joseph, b. Weston, 14 June 1726, d. 7 Sept. 1749 in 24th year, "only son of Joseph Brooks" (g.s. at Lincoln).

The following article which was written by Miriam Brightman Eddy also appeared in THE AMERICAN GENEALOGIST. This was contributed by John BROOKS THRELFALL.

THOMAS, HENRY AND HANNAH BROOKS OF CONCORD

There has been much speculation as to the relationship of the two early settlers of Concord, Massachusetts, Thomas and Henry Brooks, particularly as to whether these two men were brothers and as to which of them was the father of a daughter named Hannah.

Both Henry Bond, GENEALOGY OF THE FAMILIES AND DESCENDANTS OF THE EARLY SETTLERS OF WATERTOWN (1860) and Charles Edward Potter, GENEALOGIES OF SOME OLD FAMILIES OF CONCORD, MASSACHUSETTS (1887) make Hannah a daughter of Thomas. The most recent writer to say anything on the subject is John Brooks Threlfall who, in an article on the Thomas Brooks family (TAG 53:94-100), appends a note in which he leaves out Hannah from his list of the children of Thomas and suggests that she may have been a daughter of Henry Brooks, also of Concord, alluding to the fact that the will of Thomas Fox, who was the husband of this Hannah, refers to Thomas Brooks as uncle. Mr. Threlfall states that the word uncle was often used loosely in the colonial period and even supposes that it could sometimes mean father-in-law. If so, it is rather strange that the Oxford Dictionary fails to include any such looseness in the use of the word uncle, all examples cited having the same meaning as we now attach to the word, except in such phrases as "Welsh uncle," which seems to mean a first cousin once removed, or "Dutch uncle," a person soundly rebuking someone for a fault, "Uncle Sam" and "Uncle George," both referring to the government. It is true that words denoting other relationships, "brother," "son," "cousin" and their feminine counterparts did in the 17th century often mean something different from the current meaning.

Henry Brooks was in Concord as early as 1639, and had a son Joseph born there on "12° (2°) 1641, that is, in all probability, 12 April 1641, but this Joseph is not heard of afterward and doubtless died young. The name of the first wife, the mother of all the children, is not found, nor do we know when she died, but by 1649 Henry had moved to Woburn at which date he had at least one child who had married. Henry married, secondly, at Woburn, a woman named Susanna who is said in Belle Preston's BASSETT-PRESTON ANCESTRY (1930), p. 47, to have been a Bradford, widow of Ezekiel Richardson who had died at Woburn on 21 Oct. 1647. Susanna, whatever her maiden name was, died 15 Sept. 1681, and Henry married, thirdly, 12 July 1682, Annis Jaquith, probably a widow. Six days later, on 18 July 1682, Henry executed his will, stating that he was a clothier aged 91 years, and providing for his wife Annis, three sons and two daughters, as well as several grandchildren. He died at Woburn 12 April 1683. (See also John Adams Vinton, THE RICHARDSON MEMORIAL (1876), p. 37).

An abstract of the will of Henry Brooks is printed in the Hon. Edward F. Johnson's ABSTRACTS OF EARLY WOBURN DEEDS, p. 31, and Henry names sons John, Timothy and Isaac (the "youngest son"), son-in-law John Mousall, daughter Sarah (wife of John Mousall), and daughter Lestor; and Isaac, Henry and Miriam, children of son Isaac.

The Concord Vital Records (p. 6) show the marriage of Thomas ffox and Hanath Brookes who were married 13th (10) 1647, i.e. 13 Dec. 1647. This was a second marriage for Thomas Fox whose death is recorded in the same source (p. 8) as "Thomas ffoxce husband to hana ffoxce his wife, died: 14 april: 1658." Thomas left a will in which he mentions "uncle Thomas Brooks" (James Savage, GENEALOGICAL DICTIONARY OF NEW ENGLAND 2:196). After the death of Thomas Fox, Hannah went to New London, Connecticut, and there married ca. 1661 Andrew Lester who had been in Gloucester, Mass., before his removal to New London. Charles Dyer Parkhurst's manuscript "New London, Connecticut, and Vicinity: Early Settlers," vol. 34, she is called "Ann, Henry --widow of Thos. Fox." Andrew died at New London, 7 Jan. 1669/70 (New London Co. Court Records 2:4). In 1670, as "Widow Lester," Hannah was received into Mr. Bradstreet's church, having come from the church at Concord (Frances M. Caulkin, HISTORY OF NEW LONDON, CONNECTICUT (1895), p. 193). Hannah married, thirdly, 24 April 1672, Isaac Willey of Charlestown and he died about 1685 (Bradley Bateman Ridge, "Bateman Genealogy" manuscript, copy in my possession). Miss Caulkins (p. 287) mentions "Widow Anna Willey, sometime wife to Andrew Lester, Sen., deceased." In equating the Hannah or Ann Fox who married Andrew Lester with the Hanath Brookes who married Thomas Fox at Concord, there is but one slight difficulty. Henry Brooks apparently did not know that his daughter had married a third time when he made his will in 1682, or at age 91 he was forgetful of her third marriage.

On the basis of Parkhurst (3:129, citing "Mr. Douglas") and the Bassett-Preston Genealogy, the complete list of Henry Brooks' children goes as follows:

i. Hannah, also called Anna, b. ca. 1620, d. 1692 (Caulkins); m. (1) 13 Dec. 1647; (2) ca. 1661 Andrew Lester; (3) 24 April 1672, Isaac Willey.

While reviewing "One Hundred Years of Fayetteville" (Arkansas) 1828-1928 by William S. Campbell, I made note of the following Brooks names which were mentioned in this history.

CIVIL WAR:

Among those active in enlisting, recruiting, commanding and fighting, who lived in Fayetteville were Col. Wm. H. Brooks ....., and a long list of men in command of companies and in subordinate official capacities, as well as men who bore the brunt of rank and file of Confederate forces. Among those active in Union forces were ..... Col. Edward H. Brooks, brother of the Confederate Col. Wm. H. Brooks, and likewise a large number of men who saw official service throughout the war as well as the rank and file who fell or survived the struggle.

Capt. Sam R. Bell of Fayetteville raised Company C, 1st Regiment Arkansas Confederates, mustering in here. Among the privates were such well remembered names as ..... W.H. Brooks .....

On October 3, 1864, Maj.-Genl. Fagan made an attack on Fayetteville from the west, but failed to drive the Federals out. While the Federals held Fayetteville the Confederates under Col. W.H. Brooks threatened them with four regiments under Colonels S.W. Peel, Ras Stirman, D.H. Reynolds, and Capt. Wm. Brown. Brooks sent in a demand for surrender. Col. T.J. Hunt, in command at the time replied to come and take it. Federal scouting parties were driven in. Hunt was fearful of an attack and fortified the town with trenches, barricading the streets with what was termed the wreck of ruins. Col. Brooks considered the situation, and did not attack. Neither commander was sure of results, and Brooks, Peel, nor Stirman had any desire to destroy property or kill their friends and neighbors.

The Missionary Baptist Church was organized June, 1858. E.W. Brooks was mentioned as being among the board of deacons at the writing of this book.

The Fayetteville Republican came to Fayetteville by way of West Fork in 1885, W.M. Simpson being the first owner. In 1886, it was sold to Thomas Brooks and Damon Clark. They enlarged the paper and soon had a subscription list of 1,500.

About 1892, Thomas Brooks established the Washington County Review, over on the east side of the square. It was republican in politics. It was absorbed by D.C. Ambrose and Son who had bought the Fayetteville Republican from Brooks and Clark in 1890, in the year 1913.

TAKEN FROM THE BOSTON TRANSCRIPT MARCH 1937

"The Lincoln branch of the Brooks family (Noah) and the Acton branch (Daniel) came from Joshua of Concord, son of Thomas of Watertown. The Brooks Tavern was built on Acton Common by Daniel Brooks and occupied by three succeeding generations, Job, Daniel, and Paul. The second Daniel married Caroline Prescott of Pepperell. Her relative Col. Prescott was in the inn in 1775. The Brooks Tavern was on the stage line with Wright's Tavern, Concord, and Howe's Tavern, Sudbury (Longfellows's Wayside). The Brooks Tavern is mentioned twelve times in Fletcher's Town History of Acton. The old Brooks house, now standing opposite the Town Hall, Acton Center, was built in 1760 from two earlier taverns, one being the original Brooks Tavern built by the first Daniel Brooks."

JOHN BROOKS of NORTH CAROLINA

From Hearst's Sunday American (newspaper), Atlanta, GA, 2 March 1930, page 6-F. Column entitled "Answers to Queries". Submitted by Ted O. Brooke.

The histories of the BROOKS and TERRELL families are so interwoven, it would be difficult to give one without the other.

John BROOKS, wife Susan, and six sons, viz., Isaac, James, Mark, Joab, Thomas and John Jr., settled at Cross Creek, now Bladen County, North Carolina, in 1735, coming presumable from Virginia. In 1756, the family moved to Orange County (later Chatham) and John BROOKS was appointed vestryman of the new parish created. He secured a grant for an immense tract of land, on which he built a magnificent home. He also built and operated a mill, which ran day and night during the Revolutionary War, by his son, Isaac, providing bread for General Greene's army. According to the custom of the family, the home and 1,500 acres of land was given to the eldest son, Isaac.

Isaac BROOKS married Ruth TERRELL, sister of Timothy TERRELL, who was an ancestor of ex-Governor Joseph M. TERRELL, of Georgia. Isaac BROOKS is listed as militiaman, vestryman, road commissioner, regulator and assemblyman. In 1876 we find that he signed the regulators' petition to the Governor for wrongs inflicted by the clerk and other officers. In 1771 he qualified as a member of the General Assembly, in the same year he presented a petition that a new county be created from parts of Cumberland and Chatham. He next handed in a bill to lay out a road through Guilford, Chatham and Cumberland Counties. His brother, Joab BROOKS, was appointed commissioner to have the road surveyed.

The old Joab BROOKS home is on this road, one mile south of Siler City and has been in the BROOKS family since it was built in 1756. Isaac BROOKS represented Chatham County in the General Assembly, 1771 to 1775. He was on public claims committee. In 1792 he deeded to his eldest son, William Terrell (of whom this query is written) 640 acres of land. In 1796 he deeded to him 320 acres. In 1798 he deeded to Larkin BROOKS 110 acres and to William BRANTLEY 640 acres. In 1779 he deeded to Joab BROOKS a tract of land on the south side of Rocky River. In 1804 he gave to his daughter, Sarah, four negroes. In 1812 he gave his daughter Ruth, two negroes. In 1787 the State of North Carolina deeded to Isaac BROOKS an immense tract of land.

Isaac BROOKS married his first cousin, Ruth TERRELL, in 1766. They had seven children: William Terrell, Joseph, Nancy, Phoeby, Mary, Ruth and Sarah Elizabeth. Joseph was a representative in the Legislature of North Carolina, 1825 to 1831. When William Terrell, eldest son, married in 1792, Isaac gave him the home and 1,500 acres of land.

William Terrell BROOKS married Susannah WARREN in 1792. Their children were Sarah Ellen (married Brooks BRANTLEY, her first cousin and brother of Spencer MARSH's wife, pioneers of Atlanta); Ruth Terrell married Joseph DARK; Josiah married Ruth Terrell HUNTER (this couple came to Georgia in 1832); Lydia married Mr. THOMPSON, of Tennessee; Warren married Amelia BRANTLEY, sister of Brooks BRANTLEY; Mary married John McIntosh NICHOLSON, of Kentucky; Timothy Terrell married a wifow, Mrs. EVANS, whose maiden name was GOLSTON (they moved to Mississippi); Rebecca married Lewis KIDD, and Martha married Lewis KIDD's brother, William, William Tell, graduate of Wake Forest College and a member of the faculty for many years, resigned to enter the Baptist ministry. He married a Miss FORT. Susannah Warren BROOKS never married; Terrell BROOKS married Ann Dismukes MARSH, niece of Spencer MARSH (this record is authentic).

I would greatly appreciate any information concerning John BROOKS before coming to North Carolina in 1735. Also Timothy TERRELL who came about the same year, 1735. Can anyone furnish the ancestry of Susannah WARREN, wife of William Terrell BROOKS. She came to North Carolina with her parents about 1780 from Maryland when she was 12 years old. This information will be greatly appreciated by Mrs. John Andrew BEALL, 815 Myrtle Street, N.E., Atlanta, GA.

(Notice the date of this query. The genealogical information is too good and should be reprinted. - MSM)

Remember to send your queries and other BROOKS information for publication in the next issue. Our publication will be only as good as the input from each and every member.

His father, a large planter, was an influential citizen of Hall county and was sheriff and several times member of the legislature. Mr. BROOKE was the tenth of thirteen children. He was educated in the common schools, the facilities for higher learning that we now enjoy not then existing. When he was about twenty-one years old he accepted a situation as clerk in a mercantile establishment at Marietta, Ga., where he was employed for several years. His health failing, he left the store to begin a farm life in Cherokee county, which he has since followed, only being interrupted by the civil war. He married Mary E., daughter of Joseph L. and Aratenta DIAL. Mr. DIAL was a large planter living in Cherokee county and one of the earlier settlers of this region. There were but few families living in the county when he took up his abode there, the Indians having full possession of the country. Mrs. BROOKE's ancestors came from South Carolina. There have been born to Mr. and Mrs. BROOKE seven children, six of whom are living: Malissa T. married Mr. N. K. SCOTT and they have five children. Jefferson Prescott BROOKE married Miss Maud HOWELL, and they are the parents of four children. Elizabeth Hastings married Joseph E. JOHNSTON, and they have two children. George Washington, Mary Myrtle, and Trelly John are the other children. Ida E. is the deceased child. Mr. BROOKE enlisted in Company G, Third Georgia regiment, cavalry, and was in the western army. He was in the battles of Chickamauga and Lookout Mountain and was captured at Dalton, Ga., being kept prisoner until after the surrender of Gen. Lee. Mr. BROOKE is a member and deacon of the Missionary Baptist church, having united with this denomination when a young man. He has been successful as a farmer and has accumulated considerable property. He owns an elegant home in the beautiful city of Canton.

MEMOIRS OF GEORGIA, VOL. II

MITCHELL COUNTY

Littleton A. BROOKS, planter, Baconton, Mitchell Co., Ga., son of Littleton and Lucinda (LOWE) BROOKS - born respectively in Virginia and South Carolina - was born in Edgefield district, S. C., in 1849. His father was born in Virginia in 1792, and when sixteen years old came with the family to South Carolina and settled in Edgefield district. There he grew to manhood on the farm, married and accumulated a large property very rapidly. In 1853 he removed by wagon, with forty negroes, to Cherokee county, Ga., and purchased what is now known as the "Bullock Place," where he lived until 1863, when he moved to Mitchell county and settled eight miles east of Baconton, where he died in 1872, aged eighty years. He was a very ardent and active democrat, a warm admirer and devoted friend of Joseph E. BROEN, and a prominent member of the Baptist church, of which he was a deacon for forty years. His widow died at the old home place in 1883, aged sixty-six years. To them ten children were born - nine before they came to Georgia. Those now living are: William A., Lee County; E. B., Mitchell county; L. A., the subject of this sketch; D. B., on the old home place; Rebecca, wife of A. J. FRAZIER. Those deceased are: Robert; N. H.; Benjamin, died during the late civil war; Lucretia, Mrs. ROBINSON; and Virginia, Mrs. JASSIERT. Mr. BROOKS was fourteen years of age when his father moved to Mitchell county, where he was educated and grew to manhood. He remained on the farm until 1874, when he settled at Baconton, on the Savannah, Florida & Western railway, where he engaged in merchandising and was appointed railway and express agent and postmaster. In 1877 he settled on the farm where he now lives, which contains 500 acres, 250 of which are under cultivation. He is very energetic, is among the most progressive of farmers and citizens, and possesses remarkable executive ability. Himself and all his family are workers. Mr. BROOKS was married in 1877 to Miss Alpha M. BOWLS, born in Mitchell county, daughter of W. S. BOWLS. She was liberally educated at Jonesboro, Clayton Co., Ga. Six children have been born to them: Eugene, Willis M., Frank B., Lena A., deceased; Robert and Byron B. Mrs. BROOKS is a member of the Baptist church. He is a leading member of the county democracy.

MORGAN COUNTY

The BROOKS family of Morgan county descend from William BROOKS, a native of Virginia, who came to Georgia previous to 1800. He settled in Walton county and cleared up a farm, and when the United States was called on the battlefield with Great Britain in 1812 he shouldered his flintlock musket and took part in the war. A son, Larkin, was born on the farm in Walton county in 1805, and when about eighteen years old went out with a surveying party engaged in establishing the boundary line between Georgia and Alabama. Upon his return he went to South Carolina, where he met a Miss JONES, daughter of a planter of that state, and the new made man and wife returned to Walton county, and began life under prospects of sunshine. His wife died in a few years and Mr. BROOKS took for his second wife Permelia J., daughter of Austin and Mary J. (MAYNE) CLEMENTS. The Clements were early residents of Morgan county, and came overland from their native state of Virginia. While en route on this journey, which was an important event in the lives and fortunes of the family, Miss Matilda CLEMENTS, a sister of Mrs. BROOKS, fell out of the wagon while a river was being crossed and her life was only saved through the almost superhuman efforts of the father. Mr. CLEMENTS became one of Morgan county's best citizens and successful farmers. Larkin BROOKS fought against the Creek Indians and became one of the substantial farmers of his day. He was a good Christina and a strict member of the Missionary Baptist church. Mr. Charles G. BROOKS, youngest son of Larkin BROOKS, spent his early life on the farm and grappled with learning as the opportunities were presented to him, with the satisfaction of obtaining a good common school education. In March, 1864, he enlisted in Company D, Third Georgia regiment, under Capt. J. K. WRIGHT, Col. SNEDE. He was made a guard of Hill's ordnance wagons and was always in a bomb-proof position. In October, 1864, he was transferred to tha ranks and remained there until the surrender. Since the war, with a devoted mother, Mrs. Permelia J. BROOKS, and a loving sister, Miss Lizzie BROOKS, he has spent a happy and successful life at the homestead on their farm near Madison, engaged in farming. He is of the Baptist faith, and has served as deacon of his church since 1871. He is a member of the jury commissioners and a citizen of which the county is proud.

PIKE COUNTY

John N. BROOKS, of Molena, was born in Monroe county in June, 1844, and is the son of Ivy and Harriet BROOKS. Mr. Ivy BROOKS was a native of South Carolina and a relative of Preston S. BROOKS, the Palmetto state's eminent statesman. The elder Brooks died in 1854, and the son of John N. received his education at Bowdon and Mercer colleges; the former located in Carroll county and the latter then located at Pennfield. He devoted his time to teaching until 1887, since when he has been railroad agent at Molena and a farmer of extensive lands near the town. He is a member of and deacon in the Baptist church, and has been superintendent of the Sabbath school for a number of years. He is a Mason and belongs to Zebulon lodge No. 13. He was married in 1868 to Rosa L. PARK, and after her death was again married to Ella F. WILLIS, daughter of Rev. C. C. WILLIS, of Muscogee county, one of the oldest Baptist ministers in the state, and who was pastor of one church for fifty-two years. By Mr. BROOKS' first marriage the following children were born: W. P., Jessie L., Rosa Belle, Hattie and Annie. The second set of children are: Mattie May and John Willis. Mr. W. P. BROOKS is married and is railroad agent at Helena, Ga. Jessie L. is the wife of R. S. FULLER and lives at Shiloh, Harris County.

TROUP COUNTY

Charles S. BROOK, farmer, Hoganville, Troup Co., Ga., son of Joshua and Sarah (McGLOCHLIN) BROOK, was born in Meriwether county, April 9, 1842. His grandfather Jarvey BROOK, was one of the early settlers of Wilkes county, Ga., and served as a soldier in the last war with Great Britain. Mr. BROOK's father was born in Wilkes county in 1809, where he reared a farmer, and was schooled at the "old-field" school of the day. When he attained manhood he went to Meriwether county, of which he was a pioneer settler. His maternal grandfather was Mack McGLOCHLIN. Mr. BROOK was raised on a farm, and was educated at the common schools, taught in the dirt-floor log house with puncheon seats, etc. In 1862 he enlisted in Company A, Capt. Du BOSE, Sixtieth Georgia regiment. The company was captured soon after entering the service, and paroled, when Mr. BROOK came home and made a crop, after which he returned (the same year), and joined a company under Capt. John TUCKER, in a regiment commanded by Col. Burris JONES, which was assigned to command of Gen. J. B. GORDON. With this command he was in some of the bloodiest and most important battles of the war, Gettysburg, Wilderness and Hatcher's Run, where he was wounded in the hand, and in a muscle of the right arm, which was struck by a shell. He was sent to the hospital at Richmond, and three weeks afterward was sent to Lynchburg, where he was at the time of the surrender. From Lynchburg he walked home, beginning life anew, with nothing but poor health and a determined spirit. By hard work and good management he has become the owner of a fine 275-acre farm just west of Hogansville, well-improved, and himself comfortable circumstanced; enjoying the good-will and respect of everybody. Mr. BROOK was married in 1870 to Miss Fannie S. GRIGGS, born and raised in Troup county, daughter of Edward and Amanda (JENKINS) GRIGGS. He was a soldier in the late civil war, and lost his life in the service. To them eight children have been born: Ada; Eddie, died aged seventeen; Buena; Dora; Jesse; Roy; Charles S., and Cecil·H. Mr. BROOK and his wife are members of the Baptist church.

ADDENDUM - BROOKE FAMILY, Vol. II, p. 43-45, Brooks Family Query Exchange

Letter from Dale BROOKE GERDEMAN, 1403 Fifth Street, Las Vegas, N.M. 87701 to Ted O. BROOKE, 79 Wagonwheel Ct., N.E., Marietta, GA 30067. Printed with permission of Mr. GERDEMAN.

Dear Mr. BROOKE:

I have noted your contributions to The Brooks Family Query Exchange and have found some differences in our information. I am a descendant of Robert BROOKE, the immigrant, by both his first wife Mary BAKER, and his second wife Mary MAINWARING. Mary MAINWARING's second son Roger was married to Dorothy NEALE, and they had Dorothy BROOKE. Sources disagree as to whether she was the mother or grandmother of Rachel SMITH GANTT the mother of Rachel GANTT, wife of my ancestor Dr. Richard BROOKE. Rachel SMITH previously mentioned was the daughter of Col. John SMITH.

The main discrepancy is found on page 44 of the Query Exchange, in paragraph 2. I believe Major Thomas BROOKE and Eleanor HATTON had five sons, and that Clement was the youngest. Please see pages 50-54 of Jesuit Missions of St. Mary's County, MD by Edwin W. BEITZELL, 1975; pages 81, 82 Across the Years in Prince George's County, by Effie Gwynn BOWIE, 1975; p. 96, Vol. I, Maryland Genealogies indexed by Thomas L. HOLLOWAK, 1980; A Biographical Dictionary of the Maryland Legislature, Vol. I, A-H, pp. 172-173. You will also note that there were four children in the family of Ann -------.

You have given Ann or Anne a last name BAKER, and I am happy to learn it, as none of my previous resources gave her a surname. Also if you have her date of birth, marriage, death and locations it would be appreciated.

Family tradition has been that the Christopher BROOKE who was the godfather of George WASHINGTON was a relative, and also the White Rajah of Borneo, descendant of the British adventurer James BROOKE. I have found no evidence in my search to confirm these stories.

Sincerely,
Dale Brooke GERDEMAN

Mr. Gerdeman recently completed a project that gave him an authenticly designed Coat of Arms, with the closest possible colors according to the New England Historical Genealogical Society, Committee on Heraldry, as found in the New England Register, Vol. 107, 1953, page 188, Roll of Arms # 349, and Founders of Early American Families by Meredith B. COLKET.

Anyone interested in Heraldry and obtaining a Coat of Arms should Beware of the many offers that come unsolicited through the mail, offering fantastic benefits. Some of these firms are unreliable. Before you send any money, always check with the Better Business Bureau first.

Because of this I am asking you to continue to support our society and continue to contribute Brooks material for publication in the quarterly. If you know of other Brooks researchers who might like to know of our society and publication, please send in their names and addresses. A subscription invitation will be sent to them.

I want to stress that queries are not limited in wordage and you are invited to send as many queries as you wish. The only reservation held by the editor is that queries may be edited for clarity, or on occasion when space availability is a concern. If you have submitted a query which has not yet appeared please watch for it in the May issue.

Deadlines for submitting queries and other items are the 15th of the month prior to the month of issue. Mrs. Mills has stated she will continue with these deadlines. The quarterly will be mailed around the 15th of the month of publication. Mrs. Mills did state that the May issue, as an exception, will probably be mailed about the first of May since she is planning to attend a genealogy convention the first part of May.

A renewal subscription blank is enclosed for your convenience. A subscription is still $7 50. A subscription to Volume III includes four issues and the index which is part of issue #4. If you would like to buy a gift subscription for a society, library, or relative, your may still purchase one at the reduced cost of $6.00. Anyone receiving a gift subscription will have no membership privileges because of the reduced cost.

Remember, the new address for The Brooks Family Query Exchange will be: The Brooks Family Query Exchange, Mrs. Madeline S. Mills, 3348 East 83rd Place, Tulsa, Oklahoma, 74136.

Sincerely,

Karen D. Rocher, Editor

EARLY BROOKS MARRIAGES OF GEORGIA

Collected by Ted O. Brooke from the following secondary sources; readers should investigate original records for documentation of any of these marriages.

The most important feature of this compilation is that it includes every Brooks marriage, grooms and brides, found recorded in Georgia from the earliest times through 1810, as compiled by Mrs. Mary Warren in The Georgia Genealogist.

Readers should refer to other Georgia county records for possible marriages not found below, as this list is compiled from only the following seven sources:

Georgia Marriages, Earliest Through 1810; Mrs. Mary Warren, Danielsville, Ga., as printed in The Georgia Genealogist (various issues), fully indexed by grooms and brides.

Georgia Marriage Collection; by Mrs. Floreda Varick and Mrs. Phyllis Smith, Tallahassee, Fla. A total of 145,629 Georgia marriages collected (as of January, 1981) from county courthouses, Bibles, genealogical periodicals, church records, county histories, old Georgia newspapers, etc. Indexed by Grooms names only.

37,000 Early Georgia Marriages; Maddox and Carter, 1976. Alphabetized by grooms' names; brides searched name-by-name for Brooks references.

Early Georgia Marriage Round-Up; Joseph T. Maddox, Irwinton, Ga., 1976. Alphabetized by grooms' names; brides searched name-by-name for Brooks references.

Early Georgia Marriages, Book 4; By Joseph T. Maddox, Irwinton, Ga. (N.D., ca 1979). Alphabetized by grooms' names; brides searched name-by-name for Brooks references.

Alphabetical Card File; Main Search Floor, Georgia Department of Archives and History, Atlanta, Ga., 1980.

BROOKS
MURDOCK

I am a descendant of Young Nathan BROOKS of Wilkes Co., NC and Iredell Co., NC during 1830's where he m Elizabeth MURDOCK. Young was b ca 1805 VA (poss Halifax Co as there is where his bro Stokes was reportedly b). Their mor was reportedly Rebecca BROOKS, unmarried; there is no trace that I have been able to find of her on any record. One fam tradition has her b in Ireland and coming to NC via PA with no proof. Poss she went by another name than Rebecca, but what or which of those that are listed in censuses of Wilkes Co., where many BROOKS show up by 1810 census? HELP!!

Orella Chadwick, 7765 Fairview Rd., Tillamook, OR 97141

BROOKE
ENLOW

My father's mor, Alice V. BROOKE, b 1853, prob in Western MD near Oakland, dau of Alfred C. BROOKE, also presumed b in MD. I cannot find any info on the pars of Alfred C. BROOKE that would link him to the BROOKE fam in MD about which so much is known. I have the name of a Frank BROOKE of Oakland, MD, bro of Alfred. My gmor's mor's name is Eliza WHITE, b 19 Oct 1829, the WHITE fam traceable to Christopher WHITE b 1642 in Ganes, ENG, d 1693 Salem, NJ. My gf is James Allen ENLOW, b 14 Feb 1850 near Oakland, MD. He and my gmor were m in MD 1 Jan 1874. I understand that there are two unrelated BROOKE fams in MD in the 1600 period, so I assume that this is my problem.

Fam mov to IA where Sally may have d (Lee Co. in the 1860's) then to Gentry Co., MO where we found Lewis with his ch on 1870 cen without Sally. I am interested in finding her pars. They may poss be Jonathan BROOKS who m Margaret RAYBURN Augusta Co., VA. Sally had a bro, Tunis or Toonus who m a HARTMAN and according to fam tradition mov to MO or KS. Toonus had several sons. Jonathan BROOKS & Margaret had a son, Thomas b ca the same time as Toonus. Are these the same person? Is Jonathan Sally's father? Need names, dates & locations of any ancestors and am interested in finding living descendants of this line of BROOKS.

VIRGINIA TAX LISTS

The Virginia census for 1790 and 1800 are not available in their original form. They are assumed to have been burned in the British attach on Washington during the War of 1812. Many people have gathered early tax lists, which can be used to locate persons who otherwise would be lost. The following list is a compilation of as many of these lists as your editor could locate. If any of the readers can supply further information, please submit it for publication in a later issue.

The numbers following the names in 1782, 1783 and 1787 indicate white persons - black persons. The number following names in 1784 and 1785 indicate white persons - dwelling buildings - other buildings.

VIRGINIA TAX LIST 1810

Census enumerations for eighteen of the Virginia Counties were destroyed during the War of 1812. Although the census is not extant for these counties, we are fortunate in having something which may be used as a substitute - the personal property tax lists. "A Supplement to the 1810 Census of Virginia" by Netti Schreiner-Yantis, is a compilation of the tax lists for which the census is not extant, and should be used in conjunction with a printed census index when researching Virginia families. Some of these tax lists are dated, which gives additional value. The numbers following each name indicate white tithables - slaves over 12 years - horses.

ANNOUNCEMENT!

Since a number of our members are not researching in Virginia, it would be unfair to devote an entire issue to Virginia. Or any one state.

Therefore, the Virginia census for 1830, 1840 and 1850 will be printed in Volume IV, Issue 2.

An article in the Illinois State Genealogical Society Newsletter of March 1983 quotes: "The Tri-City GS Bulletin, of Richland, Washington, reports in their first quarterly of 1983 that a member's cousin in FL has received an almost exact duplication of the Beatrice Bayley solicitation except it is signed by a Jack Evans of New Castle, Delaware. Price: $27.85. Has anyone else heard from Jack Evans?"

We are now exchanging publications with the Truman Tribute, a quarterly family magazine of genealogical and historical materials on TRUMAN, TRUEMAN, TREWMAN, and variant spellings. Published by (Mrs.) Doris Roney Bowers, Editor,

JAMES BROOKS PENSION, R1258

Submitted by Orella Chadwick, 7765 Fairview Rd., Tillamook, OR 97141.

James BROOKS was born March 30, 1765, in Amelia County, VA. The names of his parents are not known. While residing in Prince Edward Co., VA, James BROOKS enlisted in May, 1781, marched to Scotchtown, VA, and while on duty as a guard patrol, was wounded on the head and arm, was taken prisoner and held "until after the battle between Cornwallis and General Wayne"; length of this service, two months. He enlisted about 1 Sep 1781, served in Capt. Paul M. CUNNINGHAM's Co., marched to Williamsburg, and while at the latter place, enlisted under General Everard MEADE in the Virginia State Legion and served until the close of the war, and peace was declared.

He was allowed pension on his application executed 30 Oct 1832, while residing in Wilkes Co., NC. His certificate was issued 3 Nov 1834, at the rate of $44.66 per annum. It was later ascertained that his pension had been inadvertently allowed as his name was not found on the roll of the company in which he stated he served and his name was dropped from the pension rolls in January, 1835.

He died 20 Apr 1838. The soldier married ca 1790, exact date not given, Nancy WOOD. In 1820, the soldier referred to his wife as aged about 67 years. She died 25 Dec 1846. James and Nancy BROOKS had seven children, four of whom survived their mother: Zachariah BROOKS and Sarah BYRD, both of Wilkes Co., NC, in 1806, Nancy CHILDERS and Lucy RICE. The names of the other children are not given.

In 1832, John BROOKS was residing "in the neighborhood of James BROOKS"; no relationship given.

In 1834, one John WOOD, aged 73 years, resided in Buncombe Co., NC; no relationship to the widow, Nancy WOOD BROOKS, was stated.

The name of Braxton BYRD is shown and in 1856, one James BYRD, aged 61 years, resided in Wilkes Co., NC; no relationship to Sarah BYRD, dau of James and Nancy BROOKS was shown.

WOLCOTT TURNER BROOKS, 1826-1901

From "Portrait and Biographical Album of Fond du Lac County, Wisconsin", published 1889.

Submitted by Mrs. C. F. SPANGLER, Rte. 3, Box 43, Ft. Atkinson, WI 53538.

Hon Wolcott Turner BROOKS, a prominent and enterprising farmer of Waupun Township, residing on section 13, is a native of Vermont. He was born in Addison County, on the 6th of October, 1826, and is a son of Daniel and Mary (NOBLE) BROOKS. Among his ancestry are numbered some of the most noted personages of the East. His paternal grandfather, Daniel BROOKS, who was a native of Connecticut, married a Miss TURNER, and unto them were born six children, three sons and three daughters.

The history of the founder of the TURNER family in America is quite romantic. A young man of that name left his English home and embarking on a westward bound vessel, began the voyage to America, but ere the vessel had reached port it was wrecked. When it was seen that the ship could not be saved, the crew and passengers took to the life boats. Mr. TURNER was thoughtful enough to take with him a bag of sea biscuits, thinking that it might be days before help reached them. The boat was found to be too heavy laden and it was seen that some must be thrown overboard or else all would be lost. Lots were cast and Mr. TURNER held one of the unlucky numbers but as he was about to be thrown overboard he seized the biscuits to take them along and rather than lose this hope of sustenance, he was allowed to remain. All however were saved. From him is descended the TURNER family in America and the name has been handed down in the BROOKS family since the two were united in marriage. Among his descendants was the Hon. Bates TURNER, a noted jurist of Vermont, and for a long time served as Circuit Judge of the district, where he made his home until his death, which occurred at St. Albans, VT., and the Hon. Josiah TURNER, who served as Judge in Michigan, was a nephew of Judge Bates TURNER.

Daniel BROOKS II, father of our subject, who was born in Connecticut in 1789, and when a youth learned the wheelwright's trade, which occupation he followed during the greater part of his life. When a young man he removed from his native state to Vermont, where he formed the acquaintance of Miss Sarah COOK, and they were united in marriage. One son was born unto them, Daniel C. After the death of his first wife, Mr. BROOKS was again married, his second union being with Miss Mary NOBLE, a native of Massachusetts, who on her mother's side belonged to the noted FOOTE family. It is of English origin and was established in the old Bay State among the earliest settlers of this country. A complete history of the family is extant, from the time of its founding until the present generation and a copy of the same is found in the State Historical Society's library. Among the prominent members of the family may be mentioned Commodore and Judge Edward FOOTE of New York, who are known by reputation through-out the country. The great-grandfather of our subject, Freeman FOOTE, together with nine of his sons, served in the Revolutionary War and did effective service for the cause of independence, and were all in the service at the same time.

Daniel II and Mary BROOKS passed their entire married lives in Vermont. Both were members of the Congregational Church, and were earnest Christian people, highly respected by all who knew them. The husband was called out in the militia during the War of 1812, but never engaged in active service. He supported the Whig party, and was a prominent and influential citizen of the community in which he made his home. His death occurred in 1848, after which

Mrs. BROOKS became the wife of Deacon James NOBLE. By her first marriage she became the mother of five children, three of whom are now living and have reared families. The death of this excellent woman occurred in 1873.

Wolcott Turner BROOKS of this sketch, was the fourth child in order of birth. He received a good practical education in the common schools and is an intelligent citizen, who is always well informed on matters of public interest. At the age of seventeen years, he left home and began life for himself. Serving a term of apprenticeship at the carpenter's trade, he became quite proficient in that line and then started for Wisconsin the day he was twenty years of age, believing that the opportunities afforded by the new and growing West were superior to those of the older States of the East. This was in the year 1846. Fond du Lac County was then on the Western frontier, its few settlements were widely scattered and many of its towns and villages had not yet sprung into existence. Locating in Byron Township, Mr. BROOKS followed his trade for about fifteen years, doing a good business in that line. A conscientious and efficient workman, he earnestly desired to please his patrons and his work gave general satisfaction.

On the 31st of May, 1853, the marriage of Wolcott Turner BROOKS and Miss Gertrude SANDERSON was celebrated. The lady was born in Oneida County, N.Y., Feb. 22, 1833, and is a daughter of Ebenezer and Clarissa (OLIVER) SANDERSON, who left their home in New York and emigrated to Waukesha County and from there to Fond du Lac County in 1847. They here passed the remainder of their lives, the father dying in 1875 at the age of seventy-five years, the mother being called to her final rest in 1877, at the age of seventy years, leaving three daughters to mourn their loss. Upon their marriage, Mr. BROOKS and his wife settled in the town of Fond du Lac, but soon afterwards removed to Byron Township, where they made their home until 1864, when they became residents of the town of Waupun, where they have since made their home. Their union has been blessed with two children, a son and daughter. The latter, Mary G., is still with her parents, while the former, Myron N., is an expressman of Milwaukee. He married Miss Julia DYER, and to them have been born three children.

Mr. BROOKS is one of the leading farmers of the county, and one of its enterprising and progressive citizens. In connection with A. ATWOOD, he built the first creamery in Fond du Lac and was one of the first to introduce winter dairying into the county. While residing in Byron Township he held the office of Supervisor for a number of years, and in 1859 was honored with an election to the General Assembly. He died 26 March 1901, and is buried in Waupun, Wisconsin.

PRESTON SMITH BROOKS

From The Washington Post/Potomac/August 18, 1974.

Submitted by Ted O. BROOKE, 79 Wagonwheel Ct., NE, Marietta, GA 30067.

Preston Smith BROOKS, 1819-1857, American politician who became famous by one act; the beating of Charles SUMNER on the floow of the U. S. Senate in 1856. Born in Edgefield, S.C., on Aug. 4, 1819, BROOKS was an inconspicuous slave-holding aristocrat who had served with minor distinction as a South Carolina legislator, as a captain in the Mexican War, and, from 1853, in the U. S. House of Representatives.

On May 20, 1856, he was outraged by a speech delivered that day by Charles SUMNER of Massachusetts. Heatedly condemning slavery, SUMNER had denounced by name the senators who defended it, including BROOKS' uncle, Andrew P. BUTLER. On May 22, BROOKS confronted SUMNER at his desk after the Senate had adjourned. Feeling that duels were reserved for social equals and that SUMNER was an "insulting inferior", BROOKS proceeded to flay the senator with a gutta-percha cane until SUMNER collapsed.

When a majority of the House, but not the necessary two-thirds majority, voted to expel BROOKS, he resigned and returned to South Carolina, where he was triumphantly re-elected. His act intensified sectional hostility. Northerners labeled him "Bully BROOKS" and southerners labeled him a hero. He died in Washington, D. C. on Jan. 27, 1857.

PERSONAL

Your editor just returned from a research trip in Illinois. The thrill of being on my ancestor's land, where he settled in 1783, just can't be described! Saw the original papers several of my ancestors signed in the organization of the first Methodist Church in Illinois. Plan to go back again in June. There is no comparison to doing your own research - hope you can all have the pleasure soon. Everyone in all the courthouses were so helpful and friendly.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Ms. Mills,

My aunt just sent me a photograph of my great grandfather's cousin, John BROOKS of Waldron, Michigan, taken on his 100th birthday, the 18th of June 1886 and signed by him when he was 101 years old. He had been born in Hancock, Hillsboro Co., NH.

If any of your subscribers are descendants, they may feel free to write to me. I want to keep the original, but I would have a copy made.

You might want to mention this in your August issue.

Sincerely,
Natalie Friendly

CENSUS MICROFILM RENTAL

Since census microfilm is again available through a rental program, the Brooks Family Query Exchange will not publish census records by state unless there is a large demand that this be continued.

The DDD Company, the contractor to carry out this new rental program, is contacting all public libraries and most genealogical associations to provide details of program operation. The program will operate only through public libraries and other institutions (genealogical associations included). After June 5, institutional orders are to be sent to: Census Microfilm Rental Program, P. O. Box 2940, Hyattsville, Maryland 20784. Individuals may NOT order microfilm directly from the contractor; individuals may order census microfilm from participating libraries and associations beginning June, 1983.

The user may rent the film for one week (7 days), with extensions being permitted if they do not interfere with the subsequent user's schedule. The basic 7-day rental for 35mm and 16mm film (schedules and Soundex) is $2.25. Participating institutions receive payments from the patron and may charge an additional postage/handling fee.

At the present time, the 1790 to 1900 census schedule and Soundex are available. Later this year, schedules and Soundex for the 1910 census will be ready for distribution. Individual patrons are expected to use the film at the participating institutions. Rental film is not designed to "circulate" outside the institution. Orders are to be placed through the institution and returned by the institution.

NEW EXCHANGE PUBLICATIONS

Stockstill Olla Podrida, published by Betty Smith Davis, 1700 Mustang Trail, Kingwood, TX 77339, covers variations of the Stockstill, Stockdale, Stogdell, Stodgell surnames. Queries from non-subscribers should include at least one name, one date, and/or one location, and they will be considered for publication after all queries of current subscribers have been published.

The Idaho Genealogical Society Quarterly, 325 West State Street, Boise, ID 83702. Write for query requirements. Covers all surnames.

The Prices of America, Armchair Publications, Route 2, Box 895, Hampton, GA 30228. Write regarding queries.

Rota-Gene, c/o Charles D. Townsend, 5721 Antietam Drive, Sarasota, FL 33581. A bi-monthly magazine covering all surnames.

We give free queries to subscribers of exchange publications, and in most cases this is reciprocal. However, better write first to assure acceptance. And always send SASE - they have limited budgets just like we do.

MARYLAND BROOKE FAMILY

Submitted by Patricia ELLIS HEIDORN, 505 E. Van Buren, Janesville, WI 53545.

Research in the Southern Historical Collection, University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill, N.C. Information in parentheses is from Ms. HEIDORN.

Papers of "The Misses Curry" (now deceased), Genealogists and Researchers, 1420 Girard St., N.W., Washington, D.C.

Within #854 Box 6 is the file for BROOKE and within the file is a large colorful commercially printed chart of the lineage of the Maryland BROOKE family from early royalty to Robert BROOKE and first wife Mary BAKER. Chart was printed in England by Mitchell, Hughes & Clarke, Chancery Lane, London, Eng.

On the referse side is the hand written lineage of Mrs. H. L. HODGHING of 1821 Kalorama Road, N.W., Washington, D.C., as follows:

I. Robert BROOKS m Mary BAKER, d Eng. 1634
II. Maj. Thomas BROOKE b 1632, m ------ HATTON
    In his will: Thos, Robert, Ignatius, Matthew, Clement, Eleanor, Mary
III. Col. Thos. BROOKE, b 1659 in MD, m Anne --------;
    m Barbara DENT, b 1676, d 1754 MD
    (Among children Priscilla)
IV. Priscilla BROOKE m 1706 Thomas GANTT
V. Ann GANTT b 1708 m John BROOME in 1725
VI. Mary BROOKE b 1729 m Joseph WILSON Jr. in Christ Church, Annapolis, MD. He died in 1761. m/2 James DUKE
VII. Capt Nathaniel WILSON, b 1754 MD, d 1796 KY; m/Ann BROOME; m/2 Margaret PARKER (her will proved 1833 in Lexington, KY)
VIII. Augustus Nathaniel Coburn WILSON, b 1790 KY, d 1829 before Oct 12
IX. Nathaniel Warfield WILSON, b Maysville, Mason Co., KY, 29 Dec 1811.

(Although I did not spend time copying this chart in detail, it interests me in that my ancestress Kezia BROOKS ELLIS, the daughter of Thomas BROOKS, os Maysville, Mason Co., KY, named her eighth child Wilson Coburn ELLIS. They had done business with Judge COBURN of Maysville and there was a Dr. Wilson COBURN in Maysville. Is there a connection between these men of the first half of the 1800's in Maysville, KY?)

The Illinois State Archives reports that the 1910 Miracode is NOT complete. Archives personnel have found many instances where individuals were omitted. When they have failed to locate an individual in Miracode (the index which gives visitation numbers), they have turned to the specific township of a specific county and FOUND the family (the hard way!). So, if you don't find your people in the 1910 Miracode (index), check the actual census for the area where they lived. --- Illinois State Genealogical Society Newsletter.

AMOS

Would like to correspond with decendants of Susanna BROOKS and Derenzey McDANIEL, 1793 Orange Co., VA; James BROOKS and Ann WOOD of 31 May 1785 of Prince Edward Co., VA. I believe Susanna and James to be the dau and son of my ggggparents John and Lilly Ann (AMOS) BROOKS, and the sis and bro of my gggfather George BROOKS.

Kenneth McCRACKEN, R.R.1 Box 55, Piedmont, KS 67122

BROOKS

My gfather's name was John Milton BROOKS, son of John Nance BROOKS. Before my uncle Preston BROOKS died, he said that he remembers his gfather (whose name was John Nancy BROOKS) telling him that the BROOKS family owned a plantation somewhere in GA at the time President Lincoln freed the slaves. Fifty-two of those slaves chose to stay on at the plantation and they took the name of BROOKS. But nowhere can I find any verification of this fact. I can't even find where John Nance BROOKS was born. Any help would be greatly appreciated.

Trying to trace Christopher Irwin BROOKS, b 1814, who lived near Huntsville, OH, now Logan County. A Scottish covenantor, he probably was descended from Sir Walter Irvine, first cup-bearer to King James the First of Scotland.

THE BROOKS FAMILY QUERY EXCHANGE

A Quarterly Publication

The Brooks Family Historical Society and Library

Madeline S. Mills, Editor
3348 East 83rd Place
Tulsa, Oklahoma 74136

LETTER FROM THE EDITOR

Publishing the BROOKS FAMILY QUERY EXCHANGE has been one of the most enjoyable things I have done during the past year. I hope all of you have been happy with the information during this time. Many letters have come to me expressing thanks and appreciation, and our membership list has grown, so our bulletin must be filling a void for our researchers. Some of you, like myself, may have not seen information about your particular family, but it will come to us - maybe the next issue.

DUES INCREASE

Inflation and higher postal rates have made it necessary to raise the membership dues. I obtained a bulk mailing permit to keep our postage expense down, but in order to use this method requires a mailing of 200 pieces at one time. Therefore, membership dues for Volume IV will be $9.00 until May 1, 1983; after May 1 an additional $1.00 will be necessary to send individual issues to late members. So I'm appealing to all of you to please send in your renewals NOW. It is vital that renewals be received before May 1. As an added incentive, each issue will now contain at least 25 pages, making a year's total at least 100 pages, plus index. A member blank is enclosed for your convenience.

NAME CHANGE - NAME CHANGE

Charles Allen Stevens, Rt. 1, Box 630, Altoona, FL, 32703, sent some quite interesting material that should be shared with all of you. He has been researching several families in Cheshire, Connecticut, including the BROOKS family that settled in Cheshire in 1705 and named the town after Cheshire, England.

At the Hillside Cemetery, Cheshire,Connecticut, there is a D.A.R. Plaque erected by the Lady Fenwick Chapter, 4 July 1976. This Memorial Bronze Plague is imbedded on the east side of the south secondary column at the main gate of the cemetery (Old Section), in Memory of the Revolutionary Soldiers Buried Within. Among the names inscribed are Amasa, Bethurel, David and Jesse BROOKS.

Mr. Stevens has done extensive research and says Bethurel BROOKS should be Ethurel BROOKS, and Jesse BROOKS should Jere BROOKS. He was unable to find Bethurel BROOKS in any of the Cheshire cemeteries or in the BROOKS family anywhere. As verification he states:

Ethurel BROOKS was born 16 May 1760, killed at Saratoga 7 Oct 1777 at 18 years of age. (This time at Saratoga is credited with being the turning point of the Revolutionary War). He is buried in Hillside Cemetery, Cheshire, Conn., in Section G. His parents were Thomas and Mary (HOTCHKISS) BROOKS, both buried in the same cemetery, same section.

Jesse BROOKS was born 13 July 1790, died 5 June 1826, at 36 years, killed building the Congregational Church in Cheshire. He was married to Myra TUTTLE and they are both buried in Hillside Cemetery, Cheshire, Section B. His parents were Henry and Content (ANDREWS) BROOKS, both buried in St. Peters Cemetery, Cheshire, Section A.

Jere BROOKS was born 7 Dec 1755, d 6 Oct 1834, buried in Hillside Cemetery, Section A. His first wife was Abigail BRADLEY, also buried Hillside, Section A. His second wife was Hannah (DOOLITTLE) BROOKS, the widow of Samuel DOOLITTLE. She is buried Hillside, Section G. His parents were Enos and Lois (WILLIAMS) BROOKS, burial place unknown; grandparents were Capt. Enos and Tamay (WOOSTER) BROOKS, both buried Hillside, Section H.

There are a number of other surnames on this memorial, many of whom are directly connected to Mr. Steven's family.

BROOKS OF VERMONT

Smith's History of Addison County, VT, 1886.

Submitted by Mrs. C. F. Spangler, Rte. 3, Box 43, Ft. Atkinson, WI 53538.

Samuel N. BROOKS, Middlebury, was born in the town of New Haven, Addison County, Vt., on March 12, 1821. His parents were Daniel and Mary (NOBLE) BROOKS. Daniel BROOKS was born in Connecticut, and came to Addison County about 1810 and settled at East Mills, New Haven, where he carried on his business of wheelwright for many years. He was a resident of Middlebury, Vt., for 30 years, where he carried on his business. He had a family of three daughters and three sons; cone daughter and three sons now living. He died in 1849, and his widow died in 1882, who, after his death married Deacon James NOBLES, of Benson, Vt. Samuel N. BROOKS was educated in the common schools, and early in life was thrown on his own resources; was brought up to farming, and worked for others until twenty years of age, when he served an apprenticeship with David E. ROYCE for four years at the carpenter's trade, and worked as journeyman for him for some years. He conducted business in Middlebury village for himself for six years, employing a number of men. He purchased the place on which he now resides, in the spring of 1883, which was the former Dudley MUNGER place and consists of 110 acres. He occupies a residence which was built by Dudley MUNGER in the first part of this century. He has since devoted his attention to farming, and has been a successful dealer in horses for many years. He was married in April 1847 to Susan C. BUTTELL, who was a daughter of Jonathan BUTTELL, a former well-known resident of Middlebury, Vt., who was born in Orford, Grafton county, New Hampshire, on February 18, 1824.

Norman C. BROOKS, New Haven, was born in the town of Middlebury, Addison County, VT., on October 20, 1824. He is a manufacturer of edged tools. He married Emily ATWOOD, who was a daughter of Isaac and Betsey (FARR) ATWOOD, of Brandon, Vt. They have no children. Norman C. was a son of Barzeliel and Polly (CRANE) BROOKS, who were natives of Caanan, Conn. His father was a blacksmith by trade, a trade which he learned in his native State. He settled in the town of New Haven, Vt., in 1818, where he worked at his trade for ten years. He then settled in the town of Middlebury and engaged in the manufacture of edged tools, a business which he engaged in until 1843, when he retired from business, and was succeeded by his three eldest sons, who removed the business to Brooksville, Vt., where they carried the same on for sicteen years, and were in time succeeded by Norman C. BROOKS, who now has charge of the business and who has conducted the same since 1861. Barzeliel BROOKS was twice married; his first wife was ---- COOK, and by whom he had three children, Casendana, Elizabeth, and Thomas, all of whom are now dead. His second wife was Polly CRANE, who was a daughter of Martin and Rachel (THOMPSON) CRANE, who settled in New Haven, Vt., in 1790. By this marriage Barzeliel has five children, Jonathan E. (deceased), Milton (deceased), Norman C., Mary (now Mrs. Royal ATWOOD), and Luther M. Mr. BROOKS died in April 1849, aged sixty-four years.

THE BROOKS EDGE TOOL COMPANY

According to the early history of the town of New Haven, Vt., the hamlet now known as Brooksville was called Beeman's Hollow. As far back as 1815, there was a trip hammer shop where scythes, hoes and other tools were made. Nearby was a "pocket furnace" run by Mr. AIKEN and another "pocket furnace" run by John WILSON. All or nearly all of the manufacturing was swept away by the flood of 1830.

Sometime between 1830 and 1840 Brazellai BROOKS, who was a blacksmith at New Haven Mills, apparently moved to Beeman's Hollow and with his four sons, became the life of the little hamlet. An axe and tool factory was built by Edward, Milton and McDonough BROOKS, for whom Norman C, the youngest, then worked. The elder BROOKS was an experienced steel worker and tempered the tools so successfully as to give them an excellent reputation. The business is listed in "Walton's Vermont Registery, 1850" as BROOKS and Brothers, manufacturers of axes.

In April 1866, Norman C. BROOKS, of New Haven, John H. BOWEN and Rockwood C. BARRETT, both of Rutland, organized a company and started the BROOKS Edge Tool Company. They built a forge and trip hammer shop on the west bank of the river just below the upper dam. In 1881 the axe factory was entirely destroyed by fire, but was rebuilt by Norman C. BROOKS. In 1890 business had dimished and in 1902 was reorganized as the New Have Power and Manuracturing Company. In 1910 it was again reorganized as the Brooksville Manufacturing Company, but closed soon after that.

Mrs. Spangler sentanother write-up about the Brooks Ax Factory. Other names mentioned in the article are James NOTT, John SHEDRICK, George KEYES, Tom RYAN, Norman BROOKS, Frank BROOKS, Tom STRINGHAM, Sidney RAYMOND, Will BROOKS and John BARTON.

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCHES - TEXAS

From the Biographical Souvenir of the State of Texas, 1889. Submitted by Ted O. BROOKE, 79 Wagonwheel Ct., NE, Marietta, GA 30067.

Elisha BROOKS, one of the most wealthy farmers and stock raisers of Grayson County, Texas, was born in Berkshire County, Mass., Jan. 11, 1833, and is a son of Chancey and Laura (SEARS) BROOKS, the former of whom was born in Connecticut in 1798, was a farmer and a school teacher, and died in 1885. Mrs. Laura BROOKS was born in Massachusetts in 1800 and died in 1886. Their four living children were form in the following order: Chancey, Collins, Elisha and Linus.

At the age of ten years Elisha BROOKS left his native state with his parents for Kane County, Illinois, where he remained until he was twenty-two years of age. He then went to Chickasaw County, Iowa, where he passed about twenty-two years in stock raising and farming, and in making money, as he well knows how to do. In 1877 he moved to the more congenial climate of Texas, settled in Grayson county, and now owns one thousand acres of good land about four miles west of Howe. He is largely engaged in stock raising, and is recognized as one of the best farmers in the county. He was married in 1857 to Miss Anna M. HORN, a native of Pennsylvania. This union has been blessed with the birth of eight children, namely Adell, Lucy, Nettie, Burdette, Daisy, Vern, Ivie and Minnie.

Hamilton D. BROOKS, farmer, and a minister in the Christian church at Whitesboro, Grayson county, was born in Kentucky March 1, 1845. His father, John B. BROOKS, was born in North Carolina, January 5, 1810. He first moved to Carter County, Kentucky, thence to Washington and Jefferson counties, Illinois, where he lived eight years, and then immigrated to Texas, where he arrived July 30, 1859, settled in Grayson county, and there continues to reside. He married Julia A. KELLY, of North Carolina, who bore him twelve children: Elizabeth, Eliza J., Francis M., Hamilton D., Richard P. and P. Whit (twins), John M., Sarah, Clarinda, Andy J., Ambrose A. and Christopher. Of these, Eliza J. was married to Christopher BOMBARGER; Sarah married James BURNETT; Clarinda married David CUMMINGHAM. Mrs. Julia A. (KELLY) BROOKS died in 1870.

Hamilton D. BROOKS, the subject of this sketch, married Mary A., daughter of James HALL, who is now living on Red River, Texas, but whose wife Sarah (MYERS) HALL, died in Missouri. The children born to Mr. and Mrs. H. D. BROOKS are Sarah F., Ida D., William R., John H., Richard P., Samuel H., Iola, James A., Winfield, Mary A., Lyman M., Tully and Charles P.

H. D. BROOKS, after a residence of eight years in Illinois, moved to Greene county, Missouri, where he remained five months and then settled in Grayson county, Texas, where, after learning the carpenter's trade, he followed that occupation till 1862, when he enlisted in the Confederate service, but, being under age, was discharged at the end of six months. The following seven months he attended school and then enlisted in Company A, Good's Battalion, served west of the Mississippi River in Texas, Arkansas and Louisiana and made one raid in Missouri, and then, in 1864, entered Wells' regiment. When Mr. BROOKS first entered the army he was elected orderly sergeant, was promoted to third lieutenant, and shortly afterward to second lieutenant, and next served as captain. He was wounded at Yellow Bayou, was in the battle of Prairie Grove, Missouri, at Newtonia, same state; was also in an engagement in the Choctaw Nation, and was at Mansfield and at Pine Bluff. In May, 1865, he was mustered out at Galveston, returned to Grayson county and farmed one year; the next year he passed on the river and then bought his present farm. With the thought of leading a better life, he became attached to the church of Christ in 1882, was soon ordained a preacher, and has since been engaged in farming and preaching.

Henry moved to Woburn, Mass., where John^2 and John^3 continued to live. John^4 moved to Windham Co., Conn., about 1718, where his son, Abijah^5 and his grandson, Nathaniel^6 continued to reside. However, John^7 sought more fertile pastures and migrated to the town of Concord, Erie Co., N.Y. before 1817. His son, Nathaniel^8, was born there and lived out his life in that locality. But, his grandson, Sewell^9, moved to Wyoming Co., N.Y. where he set up his medical practice, first in Bennington, then Strykersville and North Java. In 1917 he moved to Attica, N.Y. where he died. Most of Sewell's descendants in the BROOKS line live in Erie Co., N.Y.

CONGRESSIONAL INFORMATION SERVICES

Submitted by Norma S. KEATING, 4653 Ave. Rio Del Oro, Yorba Linda, CA 92686.

A new source for genealogical information has come to my attention through Norma KEATING. It concerns the CIS U.S. Serial Set Index. Part I concerns private relief bills on behalf of individuals seeking special consideration by the Congress. These reports contain such information as birth, death and marriage dates; members of families; locations; military units; doctors who treated injuries, and state of finances or health. However, not all the above information is included in all the reports. Almost anyone could have been involved in such a report, since many people turned to Congress for help during the early 19th century.

To use this collection, one must locate the index to all persons or organizations; then locate the microfiche cards. Mrs. Keating found that the index only is owned by most large university libraries, but the microfiche is more difficult to locate. This is one time when your telephone will be invaluable. A very important source, not to be confused with the American State Papers, but to be used in addition to this other important source. The Serial Set dates only from 1817; the American State Papers extend back to George Washington's first term as President and is included in the index as an integral part of the collection.

There is a group of numbers for each reference to assist in identifying the document. I haven't used this source yet, but will attempt to identify each one in the information Norma abstracted and submitted.

LETTER FROM THE EDITOR

Dear Subscribers:

Welcome to The Brooks Family Historical Society and Library and to our publication, The Brooks Family Query Exchange.

When Karen Rocher accepted my challenge to help revive The Brooks Family Historical Society and Library, I was excited and enthused. Having edited The Brooks Family Bulletin, I knew what a tremendous effort would be required to revive the publication. But I also remembered the satisfaction I felt helping Brooks researchers.

As Karen and I planned the new publication, we were both inspired with a spirit of purpose and have dedicated ourselves to what we feel is the real goal of a family historical society and publication.

In capsule form, Karen and I want to preserve Brooks information that is likely to be lost, or available to a limited few. It is our hope that The Brooks Family Query Exchange will be a place where information on the Brooks family that has never been published and perhaps would never be published, can be gathered into one historical record.

In the course of a year, four issues of The Brooks Family Query Exchange can generate a tremendous amount of information of historical significance. There are numerous one inch spaces that can be filled with important one-liners and anecdotes. And, of course, room for more lengthly articles as well.

For a family publication to be truely successful, it will be important to remember that our premiere goal is to gather and record for future Brooks' generations what we know now and don't want forgotten.

At this time, our family of subscribers numbers over sixty and is growing daily. Karen and I thank you very much for your support, but we need and want more subscribers. Please send us as many names and addresses as you have on file of Brooks researchers. Send them directly to Karen and she will see that an invitation for membership is received. Also, please don't forget to mention us in your correspondence.

In order to be a historical record, it is important for the bulletin to be placed in the genealogical reference section of local libraries, regional and state historical societies, etc. Karen and I hope that this first volume will be on file in genealogical sections all over the United States for the benefit of researchers today and for generations to come. If you haven't already given a gift subscription and are financially able, we hope you will take time now to make one or two gift subscriptions to your state historical society and local public library or genealogical society. Gift subscriptions are $4.00 each and should be sent directly to Karen. Please make checks payable to The Brooks Family Query Exchange.

Karen asked me to make a special request of you to use our query exchange. Those of you who failed to send a query with your subscription, please do so in time for our August issue.

In our November issue, we would like to do a special on the earliest proven Brooks ancestor each member has. Please send Karen a family group sheet and we will publish this collection.

Karen and I realize we are asking a lot of you; you're our advertising arm, subscription department, writers, contributors, etc. But we hope you're as enthusiastic and ambitious as we are. You're cooperation will assure The Brooks Family Query Exchange's success and survival.

Thanking you again for your support and help, I remain,

Sincerely yours,

Jeffrey P. Brooks

Dear Jeffrey:

It was a great surprise and an extremely good one to hear from you and find that you are going to edit the bulletin again. You seem to have a special talent for that and I wish you the very best of luck. If I can be of any help please notify me and I will be happy to do anything I can.

FINAL NOTES

Dear Readers:

We're running a little behind schedule but there were some last minute notes I wanted to let you know about before we go to press.

We are short material for the August issue. Please send us anything you might have which you feel could be helpful to Brooks researchers.

Mrs. Wayne Hatz, 233 - 8th Avenue, Braboo, WI 53913 has volunteered to do a name index. This is such an advantage to have an index printed annually and certainly enhances the long-term usefullness of a family publication. Thank you Mrs. Hatz.

Our goal is to go to the printers on the 15th of each month and you should be receiving your bulletin about a week later. In any event, should the bulletin not arrive by the end of the month, please advise Karen or me and we will see that another is sent.

If you have any suggestions as to how we can improve the bulletin, please don't hesitate to tell Karen or me. We're certainly open for suggestions. If you like what you see, spread the word that there's a new Brooks family readership. We need members, last count 80.

Karen will give a treasurer's report in the next issue as to what our receipts and expenses have been to date.

In looking over the membership list, I saw several familiar friends. Thanks for your support again and I hope we can once again have an effective family publication.

A special thanks to Bill Conrath of Douglas Chemical Corp. for his offer to print The Brooks Family Query Exchange on a cost basis only.

And last, a very special thanks to Karen Rocher. Without her dedication and cooperation, without her spirit and enthusiasm, without her support and counseling, I never would have attempted to revive the Brooks Family Historical Society and Library.

Sincerely,

Jeffrey P. Brooks

PRESLEY THORNTON BROOKS, of McLean County, Illinois.

From "The Good Old Times in McLean County, Illinois" by Dr. E. Duis, 1874. Contributed by Madeline S. Mills.

Presley T. BROOKS was born November 9, 1821, in Hart County, KY. His father's name was Miles BROOKS and his mother's name before her marriage was Lucy PULLIAM. Both were born in Virginia and were of Scotch or Irish descent. Miles BROOKS volunteered as a soldier in the war of 1812 and started from home on a campaign, but the was closed and the troops were discharged.

In the year 1828 Mr. BROOKS, Sr., sold his property in Kentucky for the purpose of going to Illinois or Missouri. He started late in the fall of 1828, but stopped in Indiana until September, 1829, when he came to Illinois. During the winter of 1829 and 1830 he stayed at Clearry's Grove in what was then Sangamon County, but is now contained in the county of Menard. During that winter he selected and entered land at a grove which has ever since been called BROOKS' Grove, in the present county of McLean. In February, 1830, Mr. BROOKS moved from Sangamon County to Hittle's Grove in Tazewell County, and on the fourteenth day of March of that year he moved into a very rough log cabin in Brooks' Grove. The BROOKS family was the first to settle in the present Allin township. This was before the organization of the county of McLean. The Indians, wolves and deer seemed to have things all their own way and were very numerous. The Indians were exceedingly kind and friendly and always wanted to trade some of their pappooses for white children.

Mr. BROOKS relates nothing remarkable concerning the winter of the deep snow. The Brooks family was snowbound for six weeks and, during that time, saw no living persons outside of their own family circle.

In 1832, when the Black Hawk was occurred, the settlers were panic-stricken, and Mr. BROOKS says: "When old Black Hawk was captured, there was rejoicing, you better believe."

Mr. BROOKS describes the sudden freeze of December, 1836, and says it came so suddenly that fowls were frozen into the slush of snow and water which covered the ground. The west wind came cold after a thaw "as quick as thought," and the slush and water became a sheet of ice.

Mr. BROOKS had no opportunity to attend school until about fifteen years of age. During the winter of 1836 and '37 he boarded about six miles from home and attended school for about six weeks. During the next summer he went to school for three months and his education was finished. Money was valuable in the early days. Mr. BROOKS went to Chicago in 1846, and one dollar paid all of his expenses. But as he camped out during the trip this does not appear so wonderful. In the fall of 1847 Mr. BROOKS made a visit to his native hills in Kentucky and returned with his sister's family to Illinois.

The people of Allin township seem to take pleasure in employing the services of Mr. BROOKS in the various township offices. He has been constable, justice of the peace and supervisor, and has been elected to these offices without opposition and in some cases against his will. At one time he refused to qualify as a justice of the peace, when his townsmen held a special meeting and chose him once more, and he consented to act. He has been school treasurer, assessor and collector, and if a new office could be invented in Allin township Mr. BROOKS would, in all probability, be called to fill it.

On the twenty-ninth of December, 1842, Mr. BROOKS married Miss Eliza Silvey LARISON, and in April following began keeping house at Brooks' Grove. There Mr. BROOKS had built a frame house, one of the first in the township. In November, 1870, the BROOKS family moved to Stanford where they have resided ever since. His son-in-law, William J. HAINES, lives on the old farm. Mr. BROOKS has had ten children, of whom eight are living. They are: Malinda Catherine, wife of William HAINES; Miles BROOKS, one of the partners of the firm of Brooks & Son; Mary, wife of George W. KAUFMANN, who resides half a mile northwest of Stanford; Abel BROOKS is a teacher, and lives at home; Rachel B., Lucy Ann B., Millie Frances B., and Eliza Ellen B., the pet, live at home.

As to personal appearance, Mr. BROOKS is five feet, nine inches, in height, well set, wears glasses when he reads and writes. His hair is turning gray, but he has plenty of it; he has a short squiline nose and blue eyes. He has been very successful in life, which is due in a great measure to his wife.

BENJAMIN BROOKS OF VIRGINIA AND OHIO

Submitted by Mrs. Patrick A. Yates, P. O. Box 2047, Ridgecrest, CA 93555.

Benjamin BROOKS d testate (will pro 8 June 1890) in Highland Co., Ohio, m Nancy ____. He served in the Revolutionary War as a Pvt from Virginia and received a land grant as result of this service (100 acres), but the National Archives that they have three Benjamin BROOKS' files all of whom served as privates from VA and they cannot distinguish which of these three received the bounty land (Warrant #11892, 24 Oct 1789). Supposedly, Benjamin was a descendant of Robert BROOKE of Maryland and a brother of William who was a ferryboat operator on the Ohio River and who was taken prisoner at the Battle of Blue Licks. Also he is said to have been a brother of Thomas who was a scout for Daniel BOONE.

Benjamin went to PA after the Revolutionary War and perhaps he was the Benjamin BROOKS living in Washington Co in 1790 (census). About 1803 he took his family to Highland Co, Ohio and in May 1807 is found in Liberty Twp of that county. According to Highland Pioneer Sketches and Family Genealogies Benjamin was an Indian scout and took his family from PA in the Spring of 1800. The family included his wife, three sons and several daughters. They traveled on the Ohio River until they reached the mouth of the Scioto at which point they built a boat apparently too hastily because soon after this was put into the water with all their belongings, it sank! The family all survived but with only the clothes on their backs and fortunately, their guns. They went to Chillicothe and then to the mouth of the Paint Creek where they built a cabin and hunted for food. In the summer of 1802 they went to Highland Co and obtained the land grant on Grassy Run, a tributary of Fall Creek. Issue:

During the Civil War he served as Capt in Co H, 27th Regt Ill Vol as well as Maj of 109th Reg of Indiana Minute Men during Morgan's Raid in 1864. In 1864 he was also Col of a regiment organized in Charleston, Coles Co, Ill. From 1864-1869 he was County Judge, Coles Co, Ill.

By 1880 he and his family were living in Tuscola, Ill. and by 1884 he was severely troubled by asthma as well as by a wound he'd suffered in the war. His wife must have been dead by this time although I can find no record of her death or burial in Tuscola. He left his family and went south, seeking a warmer and drier climate for his illness. EXCHANGE RESEARCH?

It has come to my attention that some societies have started exchange research among their members. How often have you wished you knew someone in another state to check records for you on a reciprocal basis? For example, perhaps you need some info from Maryland - maybe someone in Maryland needs info from your state. Anyone who would be interested in such an arrangement, please let me know and I will put your name and address, and area required, in the bulletin. If you and your correspondant wish, the research would not have to limited to the BROOKS surname.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR HELP

The response from my request for help in answering letters and indexing has been tremendous. Mrs. Jan Norwine, 232 Ridgecrest Drive, Hurst, TX 76053 has volunteered to answer letters of inquiry that involve researching back issues. Many of you offered to do indexing. Lynn Spohr, 4301 East 80th St., Tulsa, OK 74137 has offered to do the index on her computer. All that is required is a little arranging from the print out and the job is done. However, I am keeping the names of the other volunteers in case I need to call on you in the future. Thanks to all of you.

We have discontinued the publishing of the cemeteries in Claiborne Co., TN. There are many, many more Brooks listings since there were so many Brooks families in the area. This is a tremendous contribution to genealogy, since death and cemetery records are so difficult to obtain. Anyone interested in this area may purchase the entire book from the author, Paul Johnson, Route 4, Box 183, Tazewell, TN 37879 at $27.00.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Last year Mrs. Charles G. Bowen, 4885 Academy Street, San Diego, CA 92109 wrote me that she marked the expiration date for membership on her calendar as she marked other important dates. Good idea!

She also wrote that if more people would submit queries telling where their Brooks ancestors were, if they knew, it would help to connect some of them perhaps. She found Rev. A. D. Brooks who was a brother to her Dr. Lynch Brooks. Rev. A. D. Brooks had moved to Hillsboro, Hill County, TX, from Johnson Co., MO. He was 85 years old in 1911 and passed away within a few years of that date, but apparently no record was found in the Texas Health Department. If she can find something about the Brooks in Hill County, TX, she may be able to help descendants in that area and they could provide some additional data on descendants of this g.g.g.uncle.

When you submit queries, make them detailed. As you all know, sometimes just a clue is all you need to solve your problems.

BROOKE
STONE
BRASSELL

The name Littleberry BROOKE or BROOKS appears to become common during the late 1700's or early 1800's. Any info on the origin of this name will be welcomed. A Berry BROOKS lived in Pendleton Co., SC, in 1820. His age was given by the census as between 26 and 45 years of age. Also in Pendleton Co., SC, in 1820 lived Thomas BROOKS, age 26-45, George BROOKS, age 26-45 or over 45, and John BROOKS, over 45. In Anderson Co., SC, 1830 (Anderson was formed out of Pendleton) there are the following families: Littleberry BROOKS, age 40-50, Thomas BROOKS, age 40-50, John BROOKS, age 40-50, Garner BROOKS, age 30-40, and George BROOKS, age 20-30. There is also a John BROOKS born ca 1780/90 who was living in Troup Co., GA, in 1830 who has a son named Littleberry, b 1829 GA. There was also a Littleberry BROOKS who m Martha Ann BRASSELL 8 Mar 1842 in Coweta Co., GA. (The data on the GA Littleberry BROOKS was received from Mrs. Dorothy Samuel of Montgomery, AL) I cannot help but wonder about the name Littleberry BROOKS. The BROOKE family frequently used maternal grandfathers' names for sons. How are these men related if at all? There was a Littleberry STONE in SC in 1790 who was in some way related to Thomas BROOKE who came to the Carolinas from MD and his son, also named Thomas BROOKE. Could one of these Thomas BROOKEs have married Mr. STONE's daughter? If so, which if any of the above heads of households are their sons?

Dear Ms. Rogers:

For some time I have studied the families of Brooke (Brooks) in Jefferson County Indiana, and in Stokes Co., North Carolina, but without conclusive proof of the connection, other than the descendants of Humphrey Brooks, b. 1767, d. 2 April 1844, married 1786 to Ann Pickett Blackburn. This Humphrey Brooks' children were: Wiley (my ancestor), Noah Sr., Mordecia, Elizabeth, Mary, Nancy, Susan and possibly Charles Wesley. Humphrey came from Stokes County, N.C. to Indiana about 1812, I have the date but am not looking it up just now, unless you feel it is important.

His son Noah, and Fletcher Tevis laid out the town of Brooksburg, hence its name. I have census records on this family from 1800, when they should have been in Stokes Co., (Wiley, born 1786 was married in Stokes Co., and Noah Sr. was born in Stokes Co. 1795.)

1800 Stokes Co. N.C. Census:
William Brook: under 10, 1 m.; 10-15, 1 m., 1 f.; 16-25, 2 f.; 46+, 1 m., 1 f.
John Brook: 16-25, 1 m., 1 f.
Mathew Brooks: 10-15, 1 m.; 16-25, 2 m., 2 ft.; 46+, 1 m., 1 f.
John Brooks: under 10, 1 m.; 10-15, 1 m.; 26-45, 1 m., 1 f.
David Brooks: 16-25, 1 m.; 46+, 1 m., 1 f.

~~1820~~ 1810 Stokes Co., N.C. Census:
Humpfry Brooks: 10-15, 1 m.; 46+ 1 m.
William Brooks: under 10, 2 m., 2 f.; 16-25, 1 f.; 26-45, 1 m.
Mordica Brooks: under 10, 2 m.; 16-25, 1 m., 1 f.; 26-45, 1 f.
Humpfry Brooks: 10-15, 1 m., 2 f.; 16-25, 1 f.; 26-45, 2 m.; 46+ 1 ft.
Jesse Brooks: under 10, 3 m., 3 f.; 26-45, 1 m., 1 f.; 46+ 1 m.
David Brooks: 46+, 1 m., 1 f.; 1 slave

However, the fact that my Humphrey Brooks is not on the 1800 Stokes Co. census does not particularly bother me, because I have another family line which I know for sure was in Stokes Co. 1800, but does not show up on the census, so perhaps part of that census was lost or destroyed.

The 1820 census, Jefferson Co., Ind., shows John Brooks, Moses Brooks, Nor (Noah) Brooks, Samuel Brooks, Umphry (Humphrey) Brooks, William Brooks, and Wiley Brooks. All of my Humphrey Brooks' children lived in Jefferson Co., Ind. at that time. I believe that the Moses Brooks is probably actually Mordecia Brooks, and of course Noah and Wiley are my family too. That leaves John, Samuel and William. These were doubtless cousins or perhaps nephews of Humphrey. To date I have not identified the father of my Humphrey Brooks. There is a slim chance my Humphrey is the son of Humphrey Brooke, b. 1730 d 1802, but this elder Humphrey's estate does not list a Humphrey as an heir. However this elder Humphrey did have families by two different wives, and he may have left property only to the younger family, having possibly already given property to the older family. I do not have a great deal of faith in this theory. The elder Humphrey, b. 1730 d. 1802, did settle in Salisbury district, Rockingham, North Carolina.

MRS. MARGARET A. KERNS

The elder Humphrey, b. 1730 d. 1802 and lived Rockingham, N.C., had brothers Robert, William, James, George, etc., and their father was Robert Brooke Jr. Robert Jr. was a Knight of the Golden Horseshoe. I have a line on these, if either of us can make the connection. I am inclined to think my Humphrey descended from James, brother to Humphrey b. 1730, or through an earlier Humphrey Brooke.

It would seem to me that your Madison Brooks in the sketch on page 1045 of Commemorative Biographical Record which you sent me, is probably one of the two males under 10 yrs. of age in the John Brooks family on the 1820 census of Jefferson Co., Ind. The William Brooks could be his father, although the sketch does not state whether the father accompanied John to Indiana. I do not know who Samuel is, and I do not show a Walter Brooks in Jefferson Co., Indiana at any time. In case you have not read the census in Jffrsn. it is:

1820 Census, Jefferson Co., Ind.

Nancy, 59, f., b. N.C.
I feel sure this is your Madison from the excerpt, and he would be 45 instead of 25. I must have copied it wrong.

Even though Madison is apparently a brother to the man you're interested in, I'll give the census information on him, so you'll have it in case you don't.

I did not find Martin in the 1850 census, but think Young is distinctive enough as a first name to be the correct one. The other names are too similar to be concerned about. Now, I know you are not now particularly researching these two men, but offer this for future reference.

Have you read the 1850 census for Hancock County, Ind.? Your excerpt states that John Brooks, father of Samuel, lived in Hancock county in the fall of 1832, and before his death, which occurred at the age of 65 yrs,.... Possibly his children also lived in this county, in which case you should be able to find John and Matilda as children in the Samuel Brooks household at this time, or in 1860. You mention only Franklin county in your letter. I think also, that if you will check the estate for John, father of Samuel, in Hancock county, you may find out where Samuel lived that year. Then, perhaps you can track his estate down, and find out who inherited property. This would be proof conclusive, if Matilda Symera Brooks appears on the probate or deed records. As much land as it indicates some of these people had, I would think there would be either a probate or deed records showing who inherited property at the father's death. Note, also, that Madison, brother of Samuel, also moved to ~~Ham~~ a county bordering Hancock; eg. Hamilton. So, you might also check Hamilton co. for probate and deed records.

I'm sorry I cannot connect~~ion~~ you completely with my line. If you have any further research notes on the Brooks family, I'd like to know what you have. I'm ~~f~~ very interested in figuring out the relationship of Humphrey and his descendants to your William and John. Any notes you might want to share with me will be appreciated.

Sincerely,

Margaret A. Kerns

SAMUEL MARION BROOKS (deceased), formerly a highly respected citizen and representative farmer, who was an honored veteran of the Civil war, was born Oct. 9, 1835, in Jefferson county, Ind., son of Madison and Nancy (Brooks) Brooks, who were pioneer settlers of Fall Creek township, Hamilton county, Indiana.

Madison Brooks was born in Stokes county, N. C., Sept. 5, 1814, and is the oldest man now living in Fall Creek township. He is also the largest land owner, and, after giving away 1,000 acres, still owns 1,850 acres. His parents were John and Sarah Elizabeth Brooks. John Brooks was a son of William, who came from English ancestors, and moved to Indiana in very early times, settling in Franklin county, where he died. His children were: John, Elias, William, Walter, Lottie and Malinda. It is believed that William was a soldier in the Revolutionary war. John Brooks was probably born in America, and it is known that he married, in North Carolina, Sarah Elizabeth Heath, daughter of Samuel and Lucy (Austin) Heath. The Heath family also originated in England. Samuel Heath was a farmer of Franklin county, who moved to Jefferson county, Ind., where he cleared a farm of 160 acres, on which he passed the rest of his life. His children were: William, Samuel, Edward, Sarah Elizabeth and Lucy.

The children of John and Sarah Elizabeth Brooks were: William, Baxter, John, Jane and Sarah. The children of his second marriage were: Samuel, Madison, Lucy, Nancy, Eli, Isaiah and several daughters whose names are not remembered.

John Brooks, the grandfather of Samuel M. Brooks, moved from North Carolina about 1814 to Franklin county, Ind., and two years later to Jefferson county, settling in the woods on an eighty-acre tract. Here he developed a fine farm and made an excellent home, but later disposed of it, probably very advantageously, and in the fall of 1832 he removed to Hancock county, and located on 160 acres of land he had previously entered. Before his death, which occurred at the age of sixty-five years, he had cleared about forty acres of this farm. He was a member of the Methodist Church. In politics he was a Jacksonian Democrat.

Madison Brooks received scarcely any education, in the old log cabin schools, because his boyhood was mainly occupied with hard work. Nevertheless, Mr. Brooks is a man of excellent judgment, and what he failed to learn in the schools he has learned by experience and by contact with his fellow men. When nineteen years old, Aug. 8, 1833, he was married in Jefferson county, Ind., to his cousin, Nancy Brooks, born in North Carolina, daughter of Walter and Charlotta (Martin) Brooks, the former of whom was a brother of John Brooks, father of Madison. He was a farmer in Jefferson county, where he owned 160 acres of land which he had entered for himself, and he also entered land for his children, the family owning many acres of fine land. Walter Brooks died in old age on his farm, survived for a short time by his wife. They had fourteen children, among whom were Martin, James, John, Wilson, Young, Thomas, Abraham, William, Annie, Sarah, Nancy and Betsey.

After marriage Madison Brooks lived for three years with his brother-in-law, David Llewellyn, in Switzerland county, and then bought 120 acres of land in Jefferson county, to which he later added, clearing it all and residing there nearly twenty years. He then lived on 120 acres in Switzerland county for one year, but in 1853 moved to Hamilton county, settling in Fall Creek township, and buying 149 acres, where he now lives. At the time of purchase eighty acres of this land was cleared and a log cabin had been erected. He finished clearing his land and built a frame house in the summer of 1863. In 1856 he had bought thirty acres south of his present farm and kept on buying at different times until he has now 650 acres in the home farm, and owns altogether 1,850 in Hancock, Hamilton and Madison counties. He worked hard and was a good manager and followed his own ideas in the rearing of his sons, making them all good business men as well as men of substance. It was his method to put his sons on land as soon as they were old enough, permitting them to go into debt in part payment, and having them pay themselves free. The children of Mr. Brooks' first wife were: Elizabeth, Samuel M., Eli, Robert, Clarinda, Christian, Melvin, Newton and one that died in infancy. His first wife died in 1854, and he subsequently married Mrs. Mary Jane (Hurlet) Hare, a widow, who had one son, Milton, who was a soldier in the Civil war. The children of the second marriage were: Melancthon, Israel, Augustus, Albert and a daughter that died young. He had four sons in the Civil war: Samuel M., Eli, Melvin and Robert, the latter of whom was a prisoner who was exchanged but died subsequently at Annapolis, Md. In 1837 Mr. Brooks united with the Methodist Church, and he has always been active in assisting it. He contributed largely to the building of the church in his neighborhood. In politics he is a Republican and he cast his first vote for President William Henry Harrison. Considering the deficiencies in his education, Mr. Brooks has been remarkably successful in his accumulation of property. His knowledge of arithmetic has never extended beyond addition, and he has little skill in penmanship, and what he has he taught himself. Although Mr. Brooks is nearing the century mark, he retains much vigor both of mind and body.

Samuel Marion Brooks was a small boy when he accompanied his parents to Fall Creek township. He attended the district schools and secured a good common school education, but was trained to hard farm work from his boyhood. Early in the days of the Civil war he decided to become a soldier, and enlisted in Hamilton county, Aug. 20, 1861, and was mustered in on Aug. 31, as a private in Company A, 11th Reg., Ind. V. I., under Capt. George Butler and Col. Lew Wallace, for three years, and was honorably discharged at Indianapolis, on account of disability. He took part in the following battles: Fort Henry, Feb. 6, 1862; Fort Donelson, Feb. 15, 1862; Shiloh, April 7, Corinth, April 30, Port Gibson, May 1, 1863; Champion Hills, May 16, Siege of Vicksburg, May 20 to July 4, expedition to Jackson, July 5 to 8; and Opelousas, Oct. 21, 1863. On Feb. 1, 1864, he veteranized, and after a furlough was assigned to the Second Brigade, 19th Corps, and participated in skirmishes in August, and early in September in the battle of Winchester; Fisher's Hill, Sept. 22, 1864; and Cedar Creek, Oct. 19, 1864. His last engagement was at Vicksburg, Miss., and he was honorably discharged in October, 1864.

After his return Mr. Brooks resumed farming on his father's place, which he acquired as before related. The log house into which he moved is still standing. In 1880 he erected the comfortable two-story frame house. He was a successful breeder of shorthorn cattle, and acquired considerable land, at one time owning 295 acres. He was married (first) Feb. 4, 1869, to Clarissa McKinstry, born Aug. 5, 1847, in Hamilton county, daughter of William McKinstry, and they had two children, Effie, who married Levi Denny, lives in Kansas; and Garretta, who married Lemuel Clark, lives in Hamilton county. Mrs. Brooks died on the farm, and Mr. Brooks was married (second) April 18, 1880, in Hancock county, to Amanda M. Denney, born in Hancock county, Ind., Dec. 3, 1850, daughter of Wyatt and Lydia E. (Moore) Denney. To this union were born two children: Ethel, who married Fred Johnston, resides on the home farm, and has one son Robert; and Vena is a graduate of the High School at Noblesville. Mr. Brooks died Feb. 18, 1898, on the home farm, where Mrs. Brooks and her daughters still reside. He was a member of the G. A. R., at Fishers Switch, and of the Masonic fraternity at McCordsville. In politics he was a Republican.

Wyatt Denney, father of Mrs. Brooks, was one of the best known pioneers of Hancock county. He settled on a farm of 140 acres in Vernon township, south of Fortville, which he entered and cleared. He married Lydia Moore, born in Rockingham county, Va., but reared in Hancock county, Ind. James Denney, grandfather of Mrs. Brooks, came from North Carolina to Rockingham county, and died on his farm there. The children of Wyatt Denney were: William, George, Elizabeth, Charles, Amanda, James and Lafayette. William and George both served in the Civil war, the former in the 2nd Indiana Cavalry for three years, and the latter in the 12th Ind. Infantry, for three years, and both survived. Wyatt Denney was a justice of the peace for a considerable period. From the age of seventeen years he was a member of the Baptist Church, and was always prominent in its work. He died July 14, 1865. Both paternal and maternal grandfathers of Mrs. Brooks were soldiers in the Revolutionary war, and were also in the war of 1812.

LEONARD BURKHARDT, who since 1880 has been residing on his fine farm of forty acres, is a veteran of the Civil war, and one of Tipton's representative agriculturists. Mr. Burkhardt was born Jan. 20, 1840, on the river Rhine, Grand Duchy of Baden, Ger-

Dear Mrs. Ouery Editor,

I am glad that some one has started a group to help in researching. If I can be of service, I will be happy to help. I have spent some time on the Sowers line (my mother's people). I have also corresponded with Mrs. Ruth Sowers Owen, the Sowers historian. She has just recently published a book on the Sowers line. She has 27 different spellings of the name. I have one and will let any one look it over.
